I am the eagle, I live in high country,
In rocky cathedrals that reach to the sky.
I am the hawk and there's blood on my feathers
But time is still turning, they soon will be dry.
And all those who see me
And those who believe in me
Share in the freedom I feel when I fly.

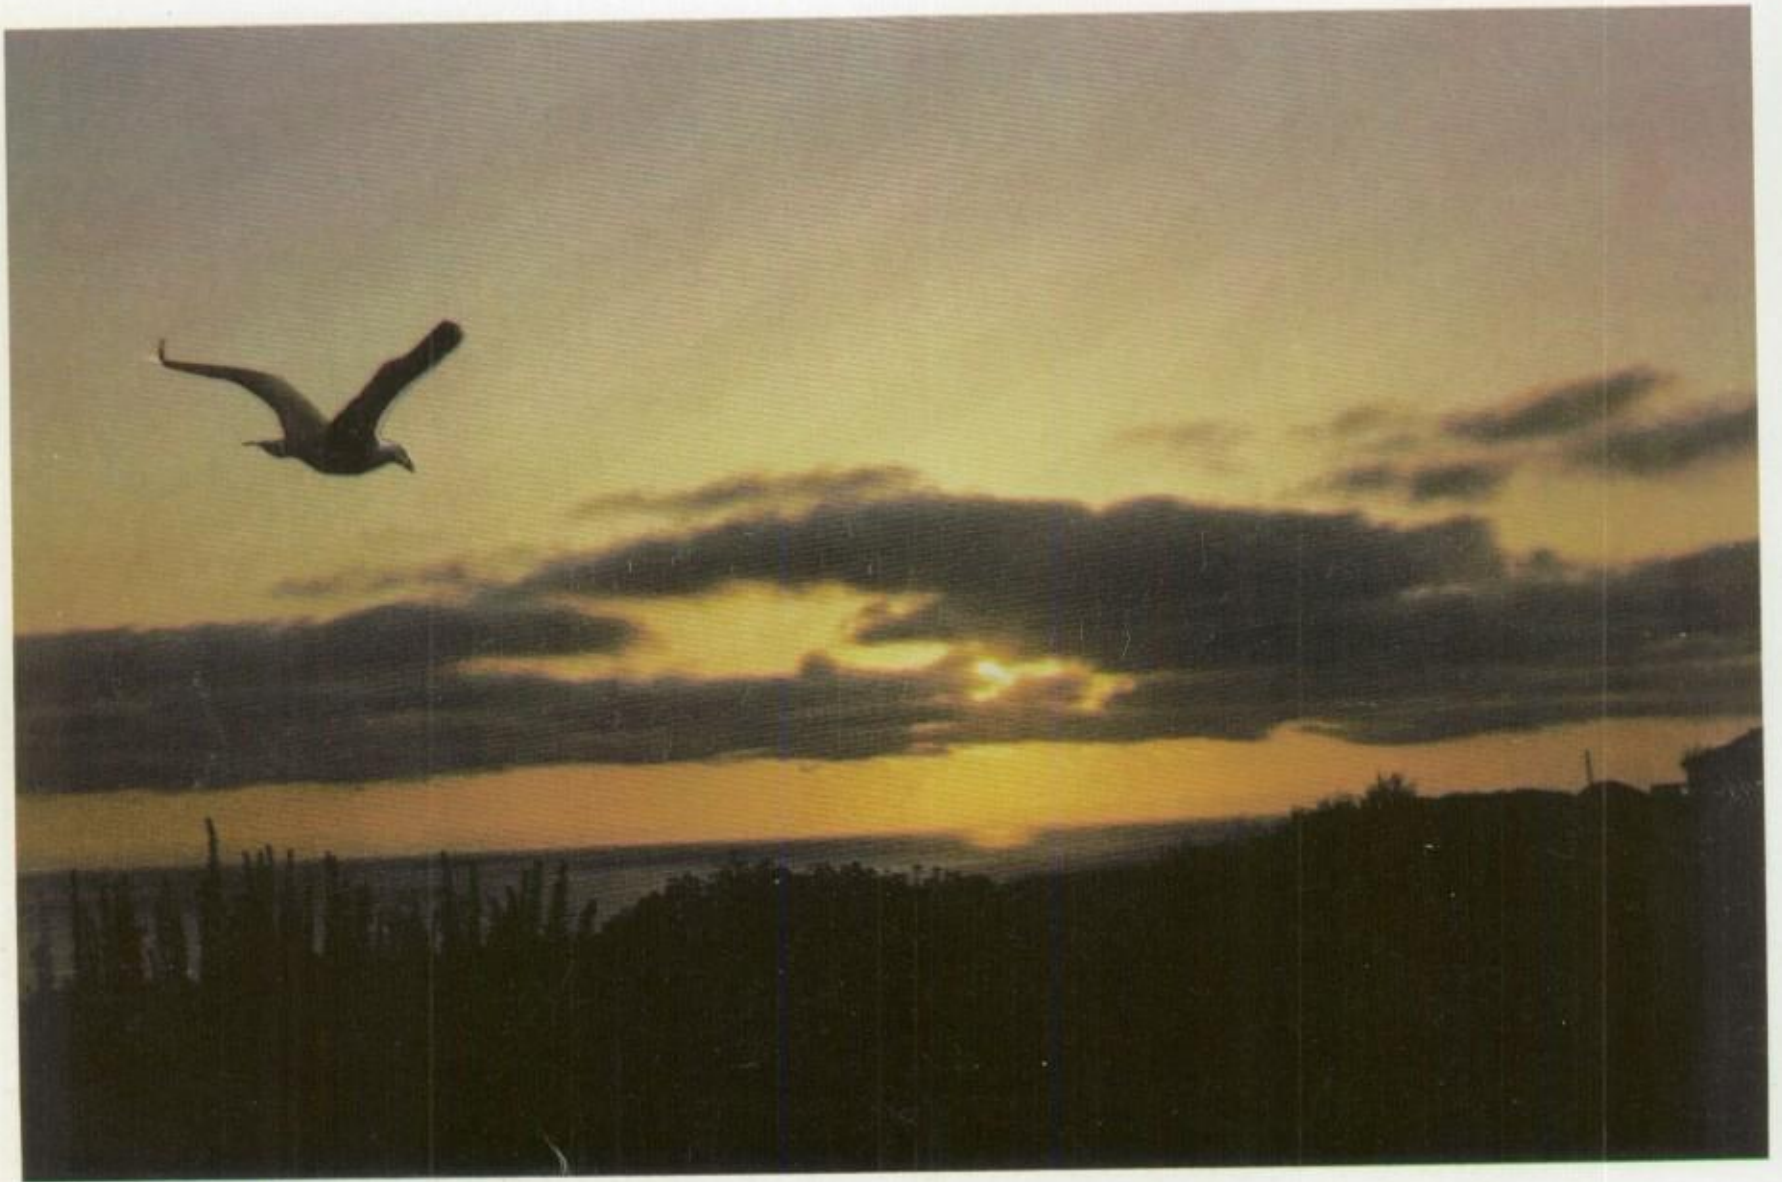

Come dance with the west wind
And touch on the mountain tops.
Sail o'er the canyons and up to the stars.
And reach for the heavens and hope for the future
And all that we can be and not what we are.

No bird soars too high, if he soars with his own wings.

To someone I know for a long time have been in the summer and good luck next year your friend
 Robert Curdall

A fierce unrest
 Seethes at the core
 Of all existing things.
 It was
 The eager wish to soar
 That gave the Gods
 Their wings . . .
 There throbs through all
 The worlds that are
 This heart beat,
 Hot and strong,
 And shaken systems,
 Star by star,
 Awake and glow
 In song.

Peter Brooks

If then,
we must fly

Peter Brooks

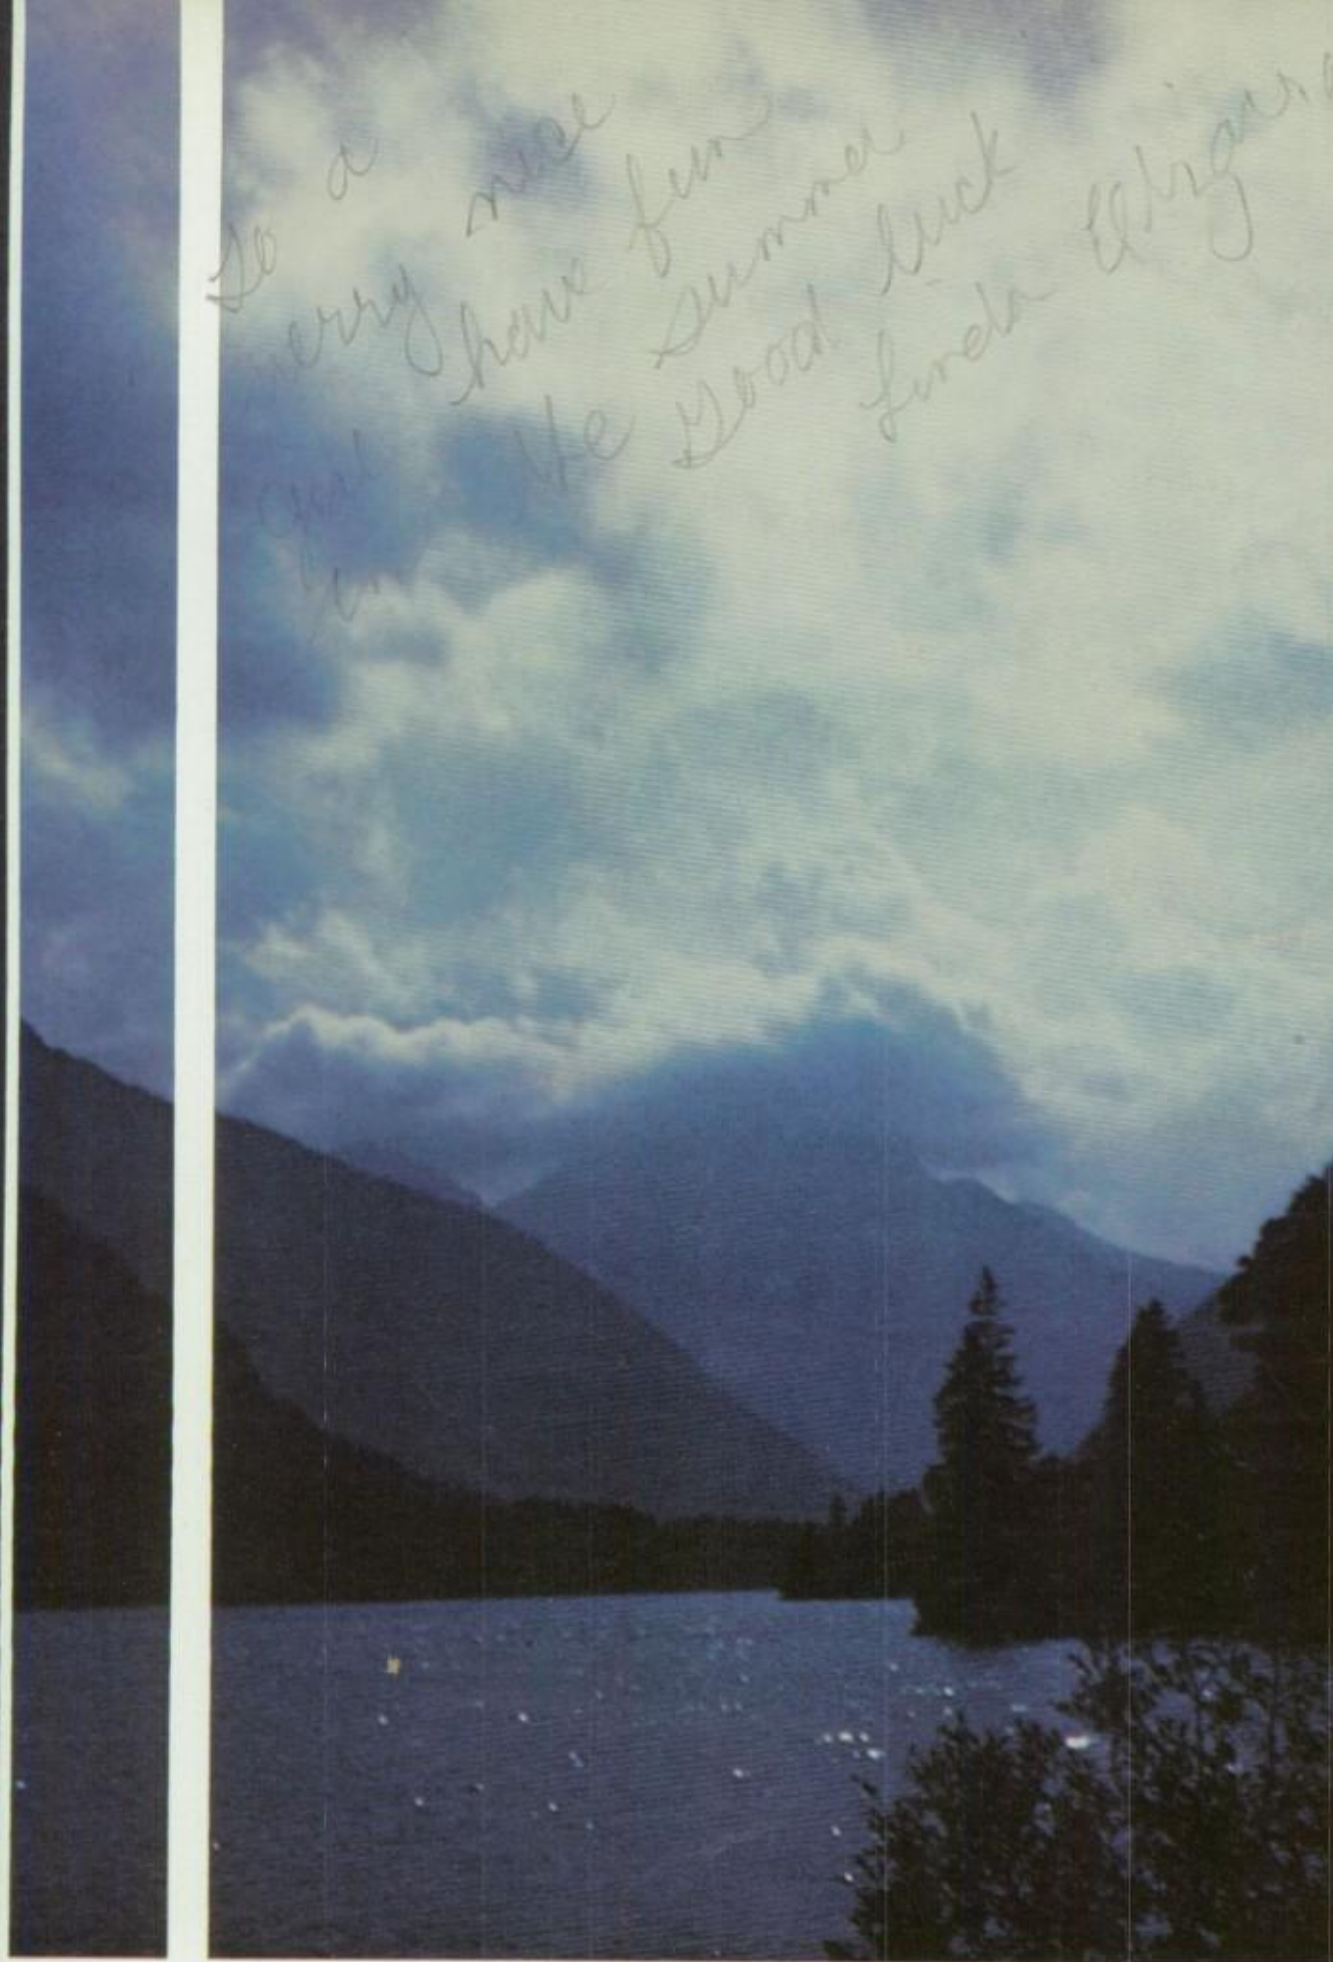

...let us aspire to the heights, with each our own star to follow.

Thus, while the mute creations downward bend
Their sight, and to their earthly mother tend,

Peter Brooks

So a happy have fun summer good luck forever
Eligius

Man looks aloft
And with Erected eyes
Beholds his own
Hereditary skies.

Ovid

Man is his own star, and the soul that can Render an honest and a perfect man
Commands all light, all influence, all fate;
Nothing to him falls too early, or too late.

Beaumont & Fletcher

Your life is like a jigsaw puzzle! You are constantly forming and rearranging pieces. Your ambitions are among the pieces on the table. What lies ahead? Is there a right or wrong to the pieces you choose? What is necessary to stand up with society? The help is there, all you need do is ask.

Miss Ito's job is not to put the pieces in but to help you, the student, guide the right pieces into the right spaces.

"They might not need me, but they might
I'll let my head be just in sight,
A smile as small as mine might be Precisely their necessity."

Emily Dickinson

We walk on water wondering when we will be able to see what is below. It mirrors for us the calm of our thoughts, the dreams of untold fortunes, the love lost or gained. Affections are spread far and wide, floating, wondering, never to be lost. Few do not feel the warmth, the peaceful, calm serenity that is the innermost wish of each and everyone. We have attained those ideals which others will learn, know, understand. It is this that makes us a part of everyone's life, everyone's memory.

ACTIVITIES

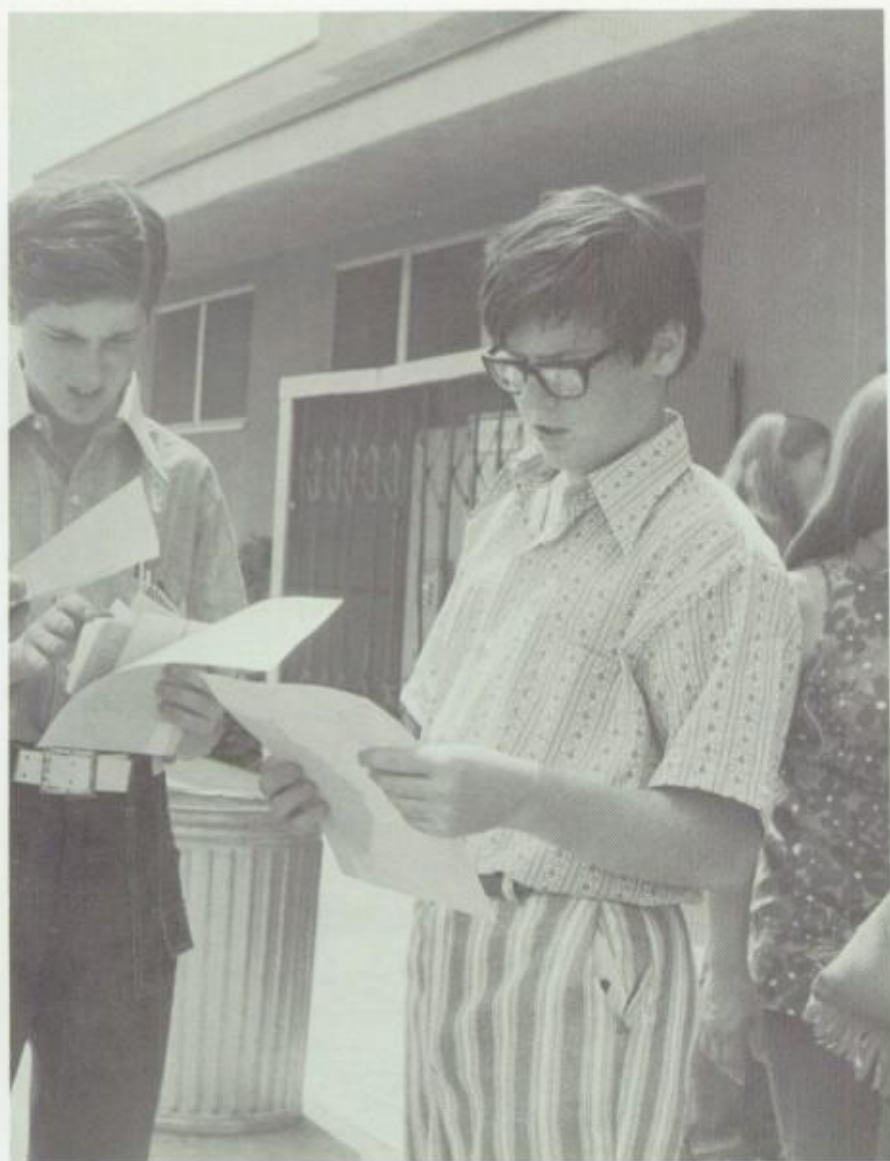

Registration Week

Anyone who maintains calm in the midst of all this confusion surely does not understand the situation.

Princess Dee Lillywhite

Princess Debbie Wilson

Princess Robin Hayes

Princess Mary Nyhagan

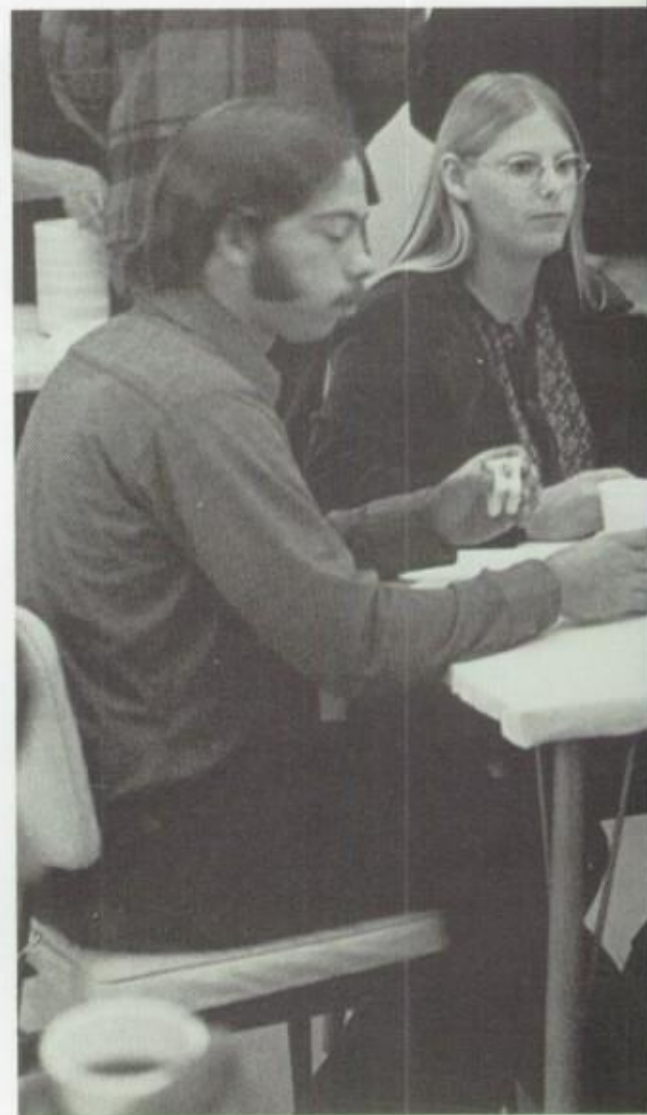

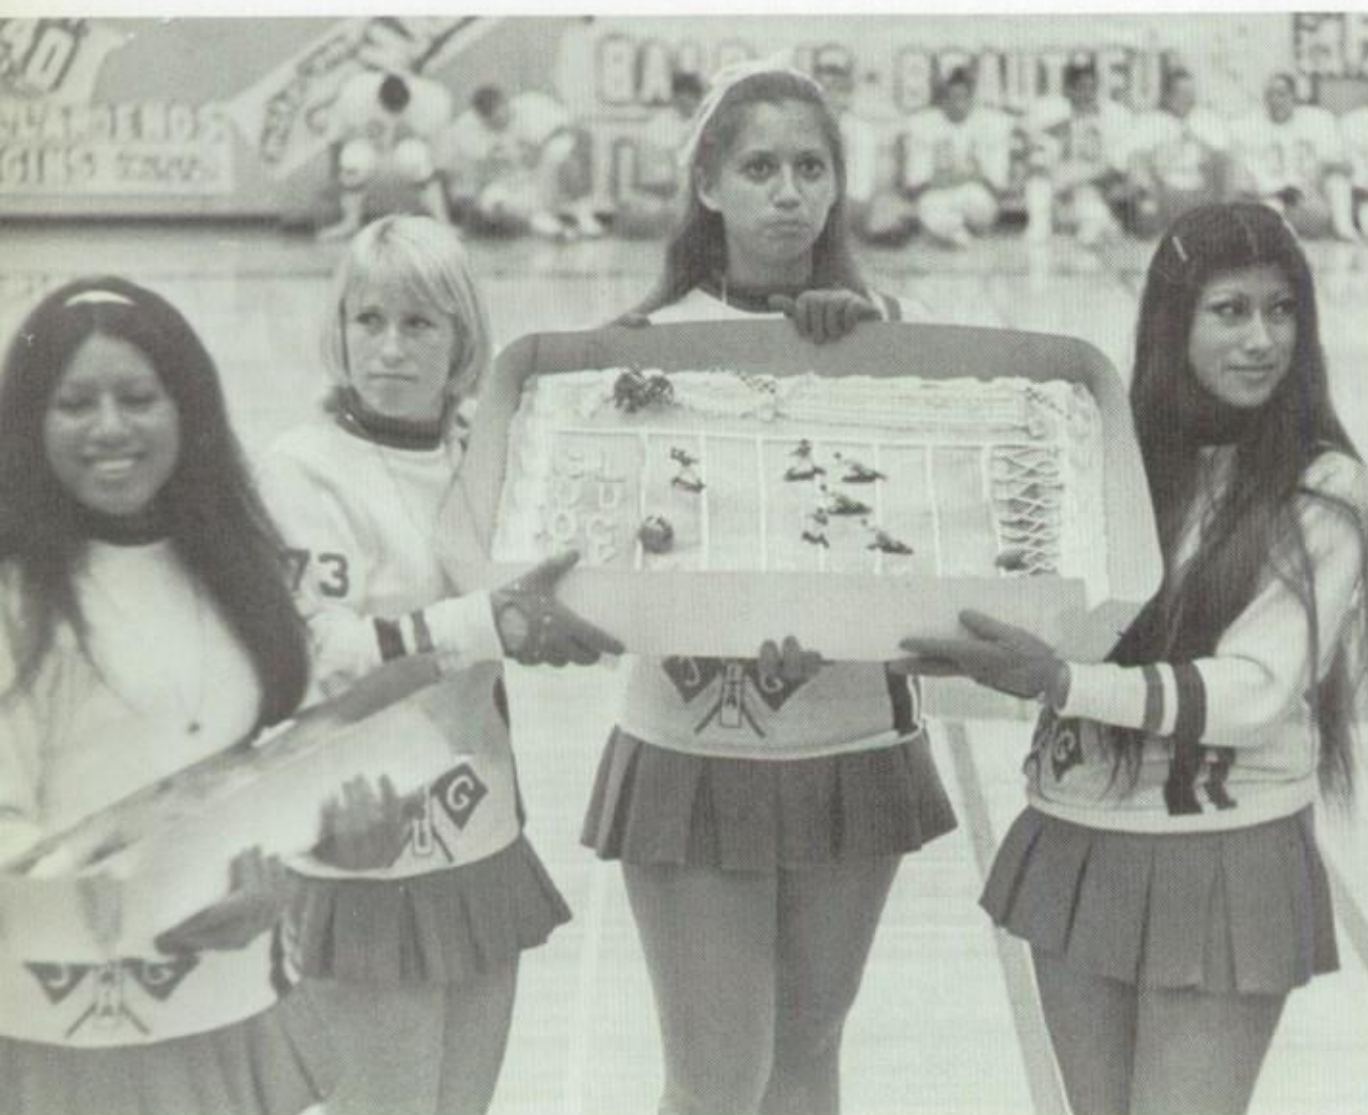

Queen Linda Hershey

The Eagles were sadly disappointed with the lack of Homecoming activities this year. What with one problem and another, the week was almost like any other. Friday, however, brought back some of our spirit with a great rally and Senior Tea afterwards to welcome back our alumni and introduce our princesses.

★★ HOMECOMING ★★

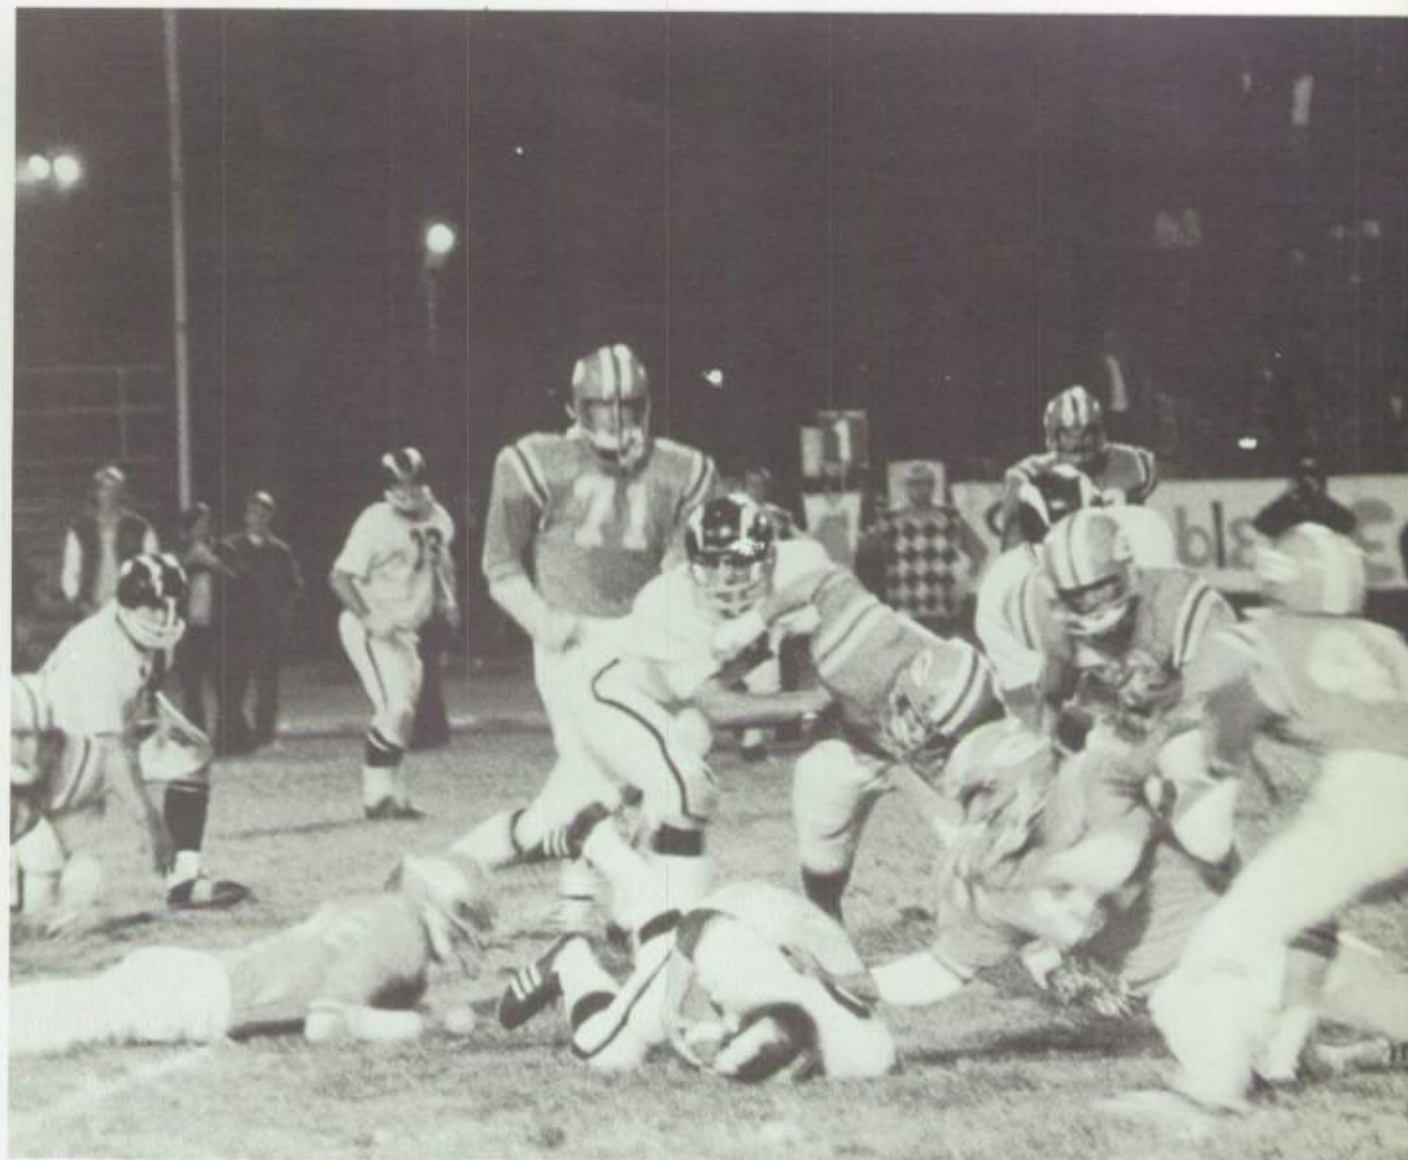

WEEK ★ ★

The time for memories comes but once a year.
 That time is Homecoming. Sadly enough this year our Homecoming Week was nonexistent.
 Our Homecoming Game was a defeat on the field.
 The Homecoming at half-time was to be a time
 for remembrances of yesteryear for our alumni.
 With no activities and no forethought, it wasn't even a night that the Princesses would want to remember.

--- HOMECOMING ---

GAME

CALIFORNIA DREAMING

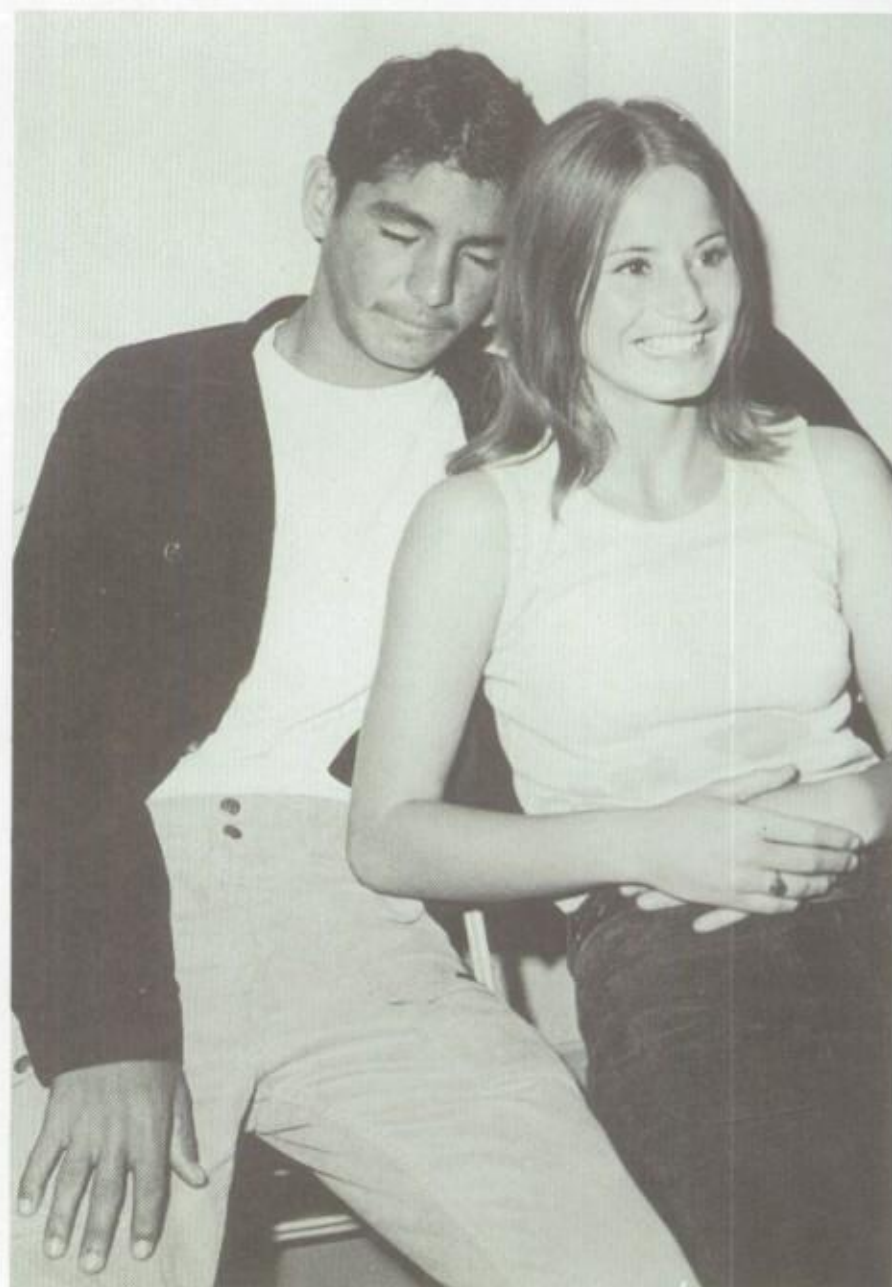

It's the time for little fantasies;
 The fantasy of a dream,
 Of a wish come true,
 An urge to laugh,
 To cry.
 It's you and I searching, pondering;
 Holding on to and letting go
 Of something within each of us.
 It's a smile,
 As close as it is far away;
 Warmth and fondness following the path.
 It's never knowing when,
 But always hoping, reaching,
 In the thought that it might be there.
 It's the shedding of tears
 For happiness,
 For love,
 For all.

Spirit Dance

Times are much happier when we win!
To celebrate our victory and to show our spirit, a dance was held. The spirit of the evening was climaxed when people actually moved off their seats to dance.

Army Band

In January, The New Reliables came from Ft. Lewis Wash. The students filed into the gym for (OH HUM) another assembly. Then to our astonishment, we discovered that this Army band was really good. Toward the end, the lead singer asked for a dancing partner. (Dead Silence) Then to the shock and humiliation of her fellow students, Monica Morris actually had the guts and audacity to get up and dance. This is one assembly which won't soon be forgotten.

Christmas Twilight

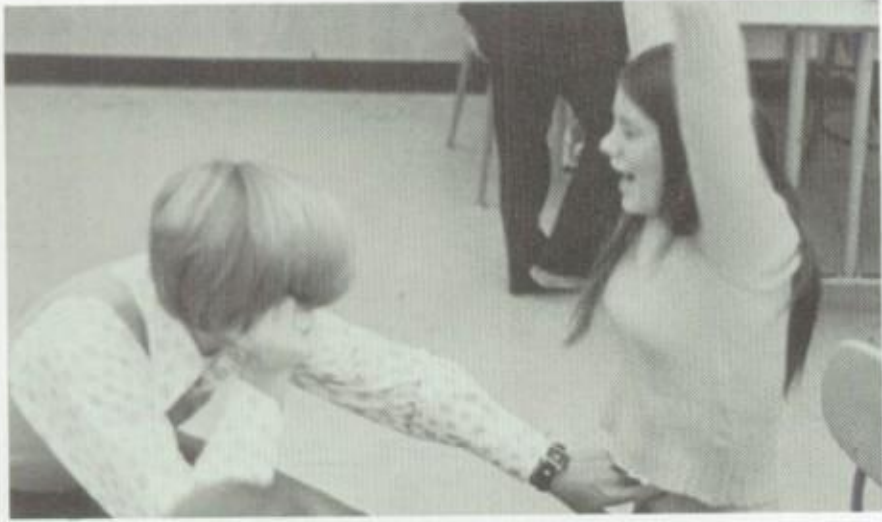

The Christmas Twilight Dance came to life at the Candlewood Country Club December 19. It was a night of joy for Rachel Valdivia as she was crowned Queen of the Dance. A pathway of stars lit up the dance floor as the smiles of Rachel and her court lit up the atmosphere. It was a night that Rachel will always remember.

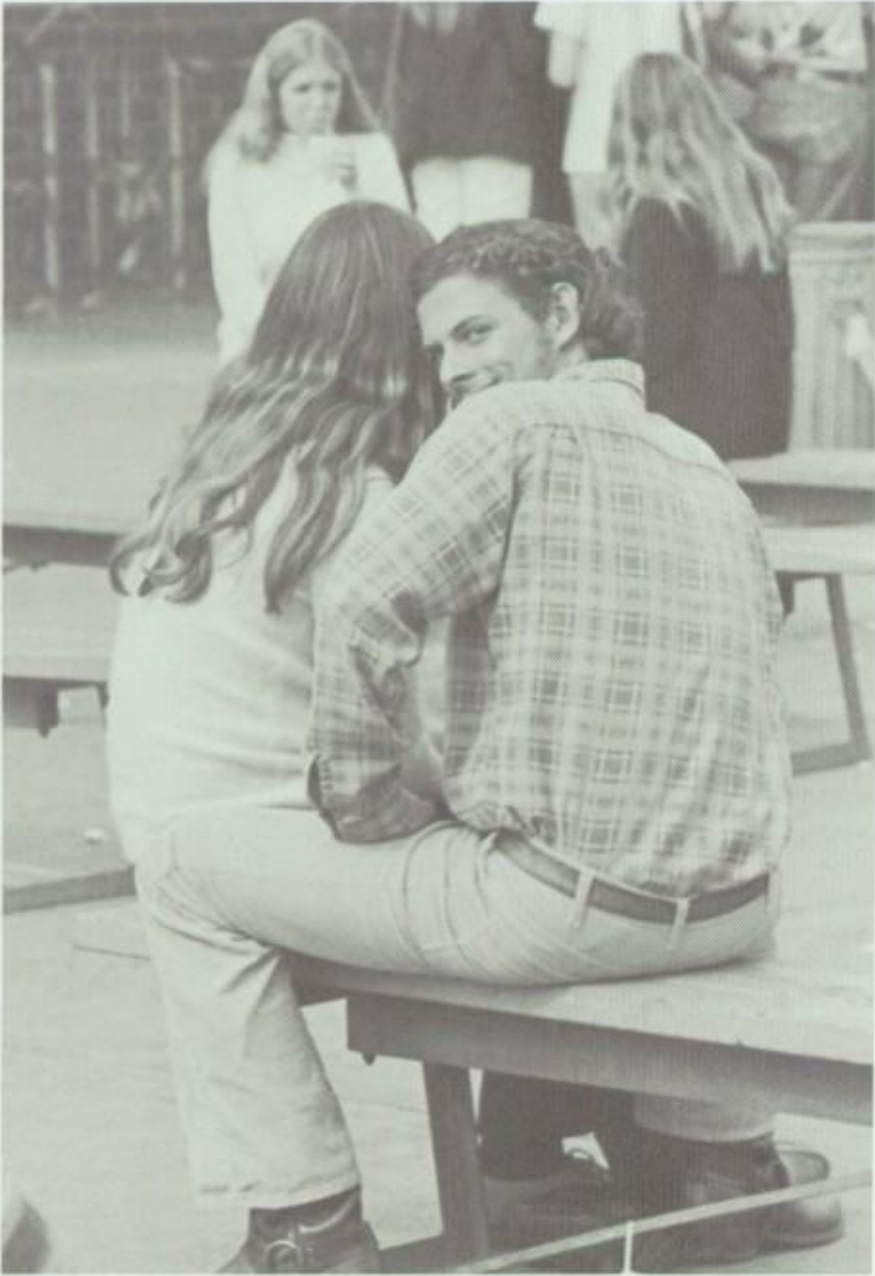

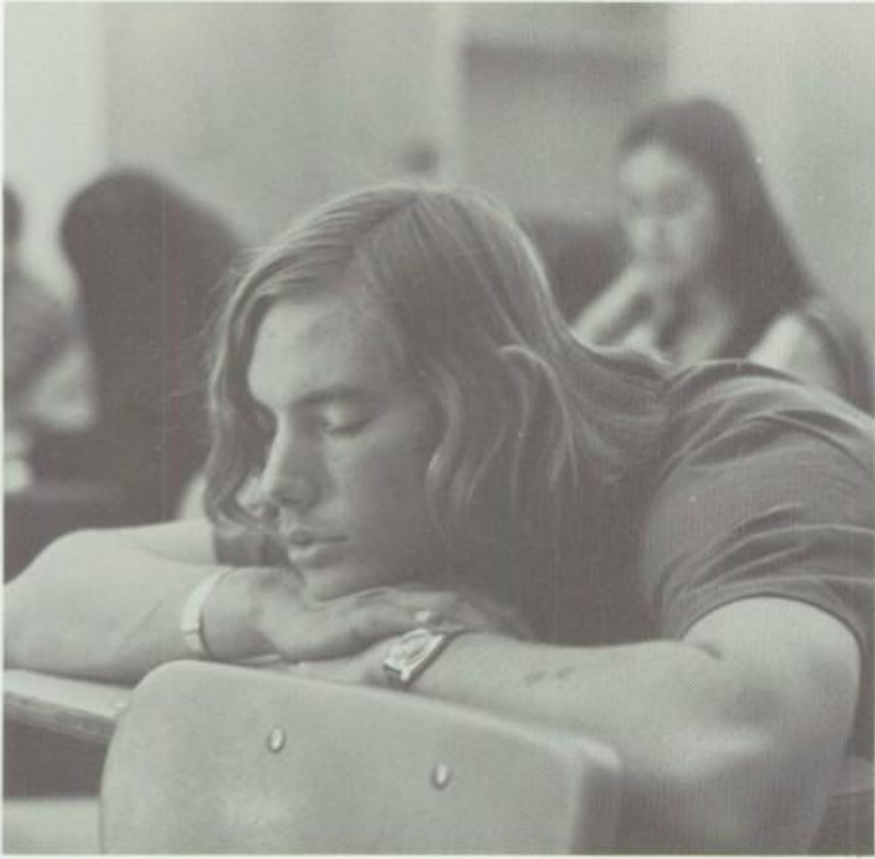

Student Government Day

January 19, 1973 was Student Government Day at John Glenn. It was a day to discuss common problems of the different schools in our district. Ceremonies were started at eight o'clock by vice-president Perry Yarbrough. The schools then broke down into the different offices; president and vice-president, etc. A tour of the campus was given by the small units. Then the first rap session began. Discussions came from all the schools. A lot was accomplished. A general session began with Mr. Michael Westerlin talking. The day ended after the rally in the gym was concluded.

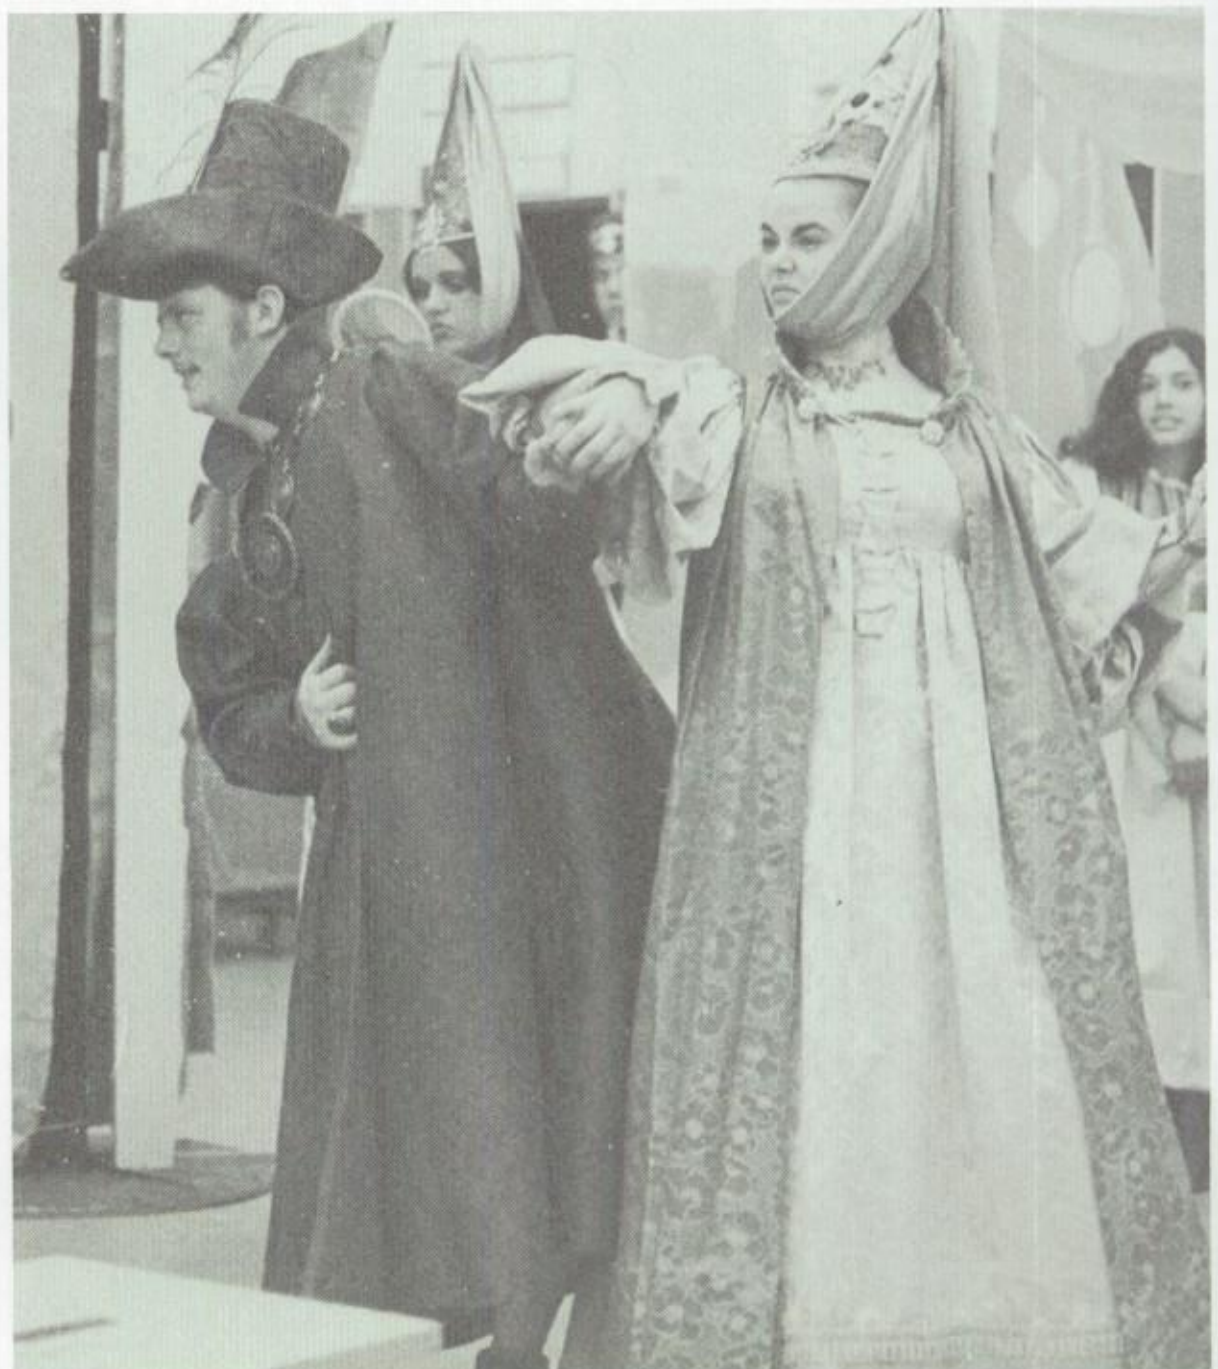

Expressions

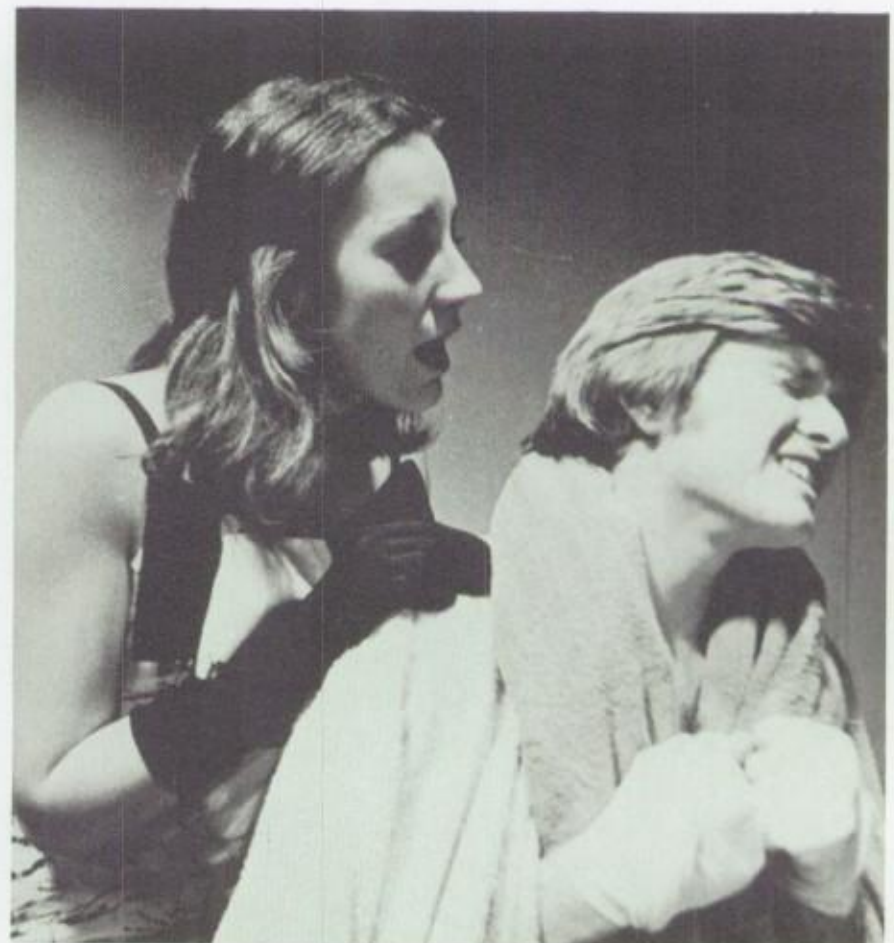

The Pied Piper of Hamelin

Believe it or not Children's Theater is more than a bunch of slightly wierd kids dressed up like rats. To the students involved, it is a real chance to do something worthwhile and rewarding. This year their production of "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" was a wonderful experience for the actors, even more so for the children at the various schools. 1973 is only it's second year but already Children's Theater is an established part of John Glenn.

Golden Boy is more than a romantic triangle between a young boxer, his manager and the woman they both loved. It is the story of a young man's struggle for his purpose in life and a woman's search for happiness. Set in the '30's, the show was enhanced by some fresh new acting. Like all of Mr. C's shows the near disasters were overcome and the show was a huge success.

Golden Boy

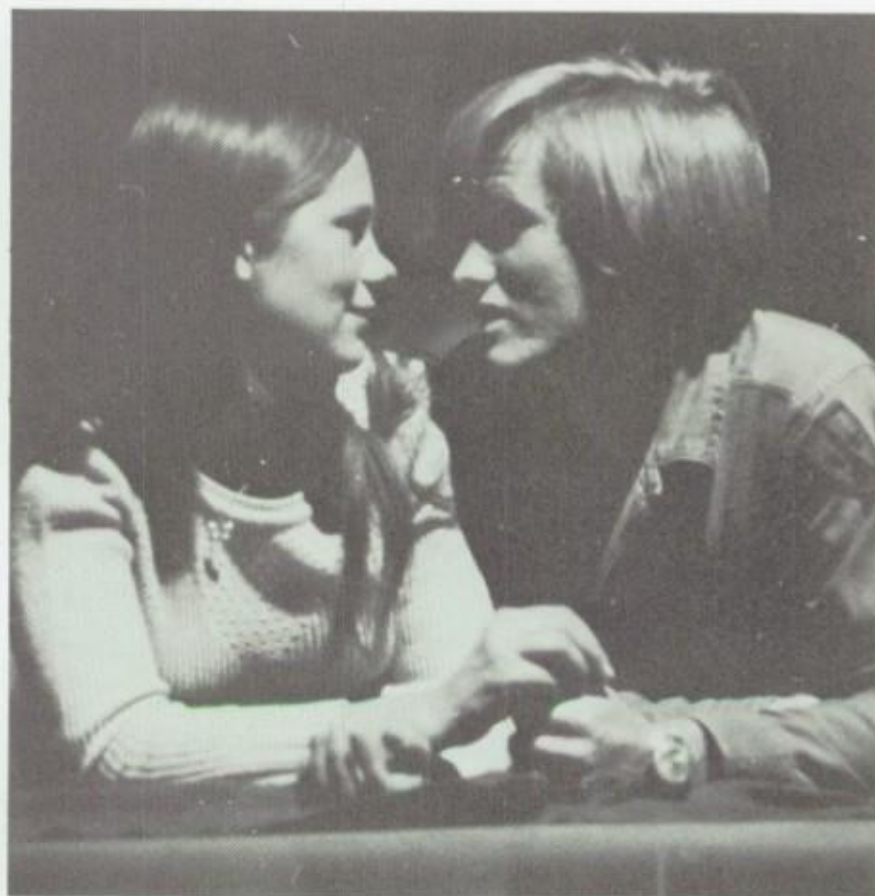

The play centered around a dying soldier and his memories of his childhood, his mother and father, and his girlfriend through flashbacks. Wes Fowler and Mario Cordero alternated in this very difficult role. The feeling of emotion, and fear of dying were in part a truth to the experiences of many men who have fought and died for what they believed in.

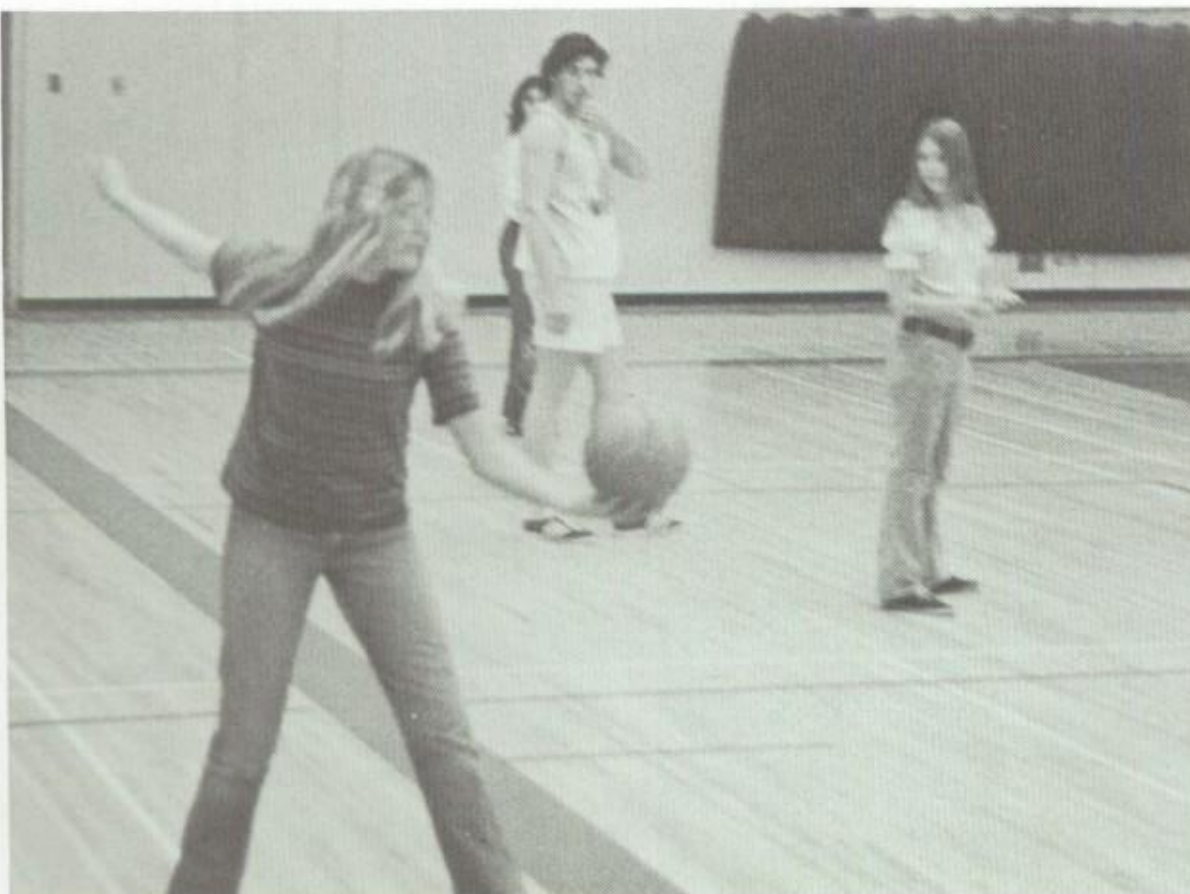

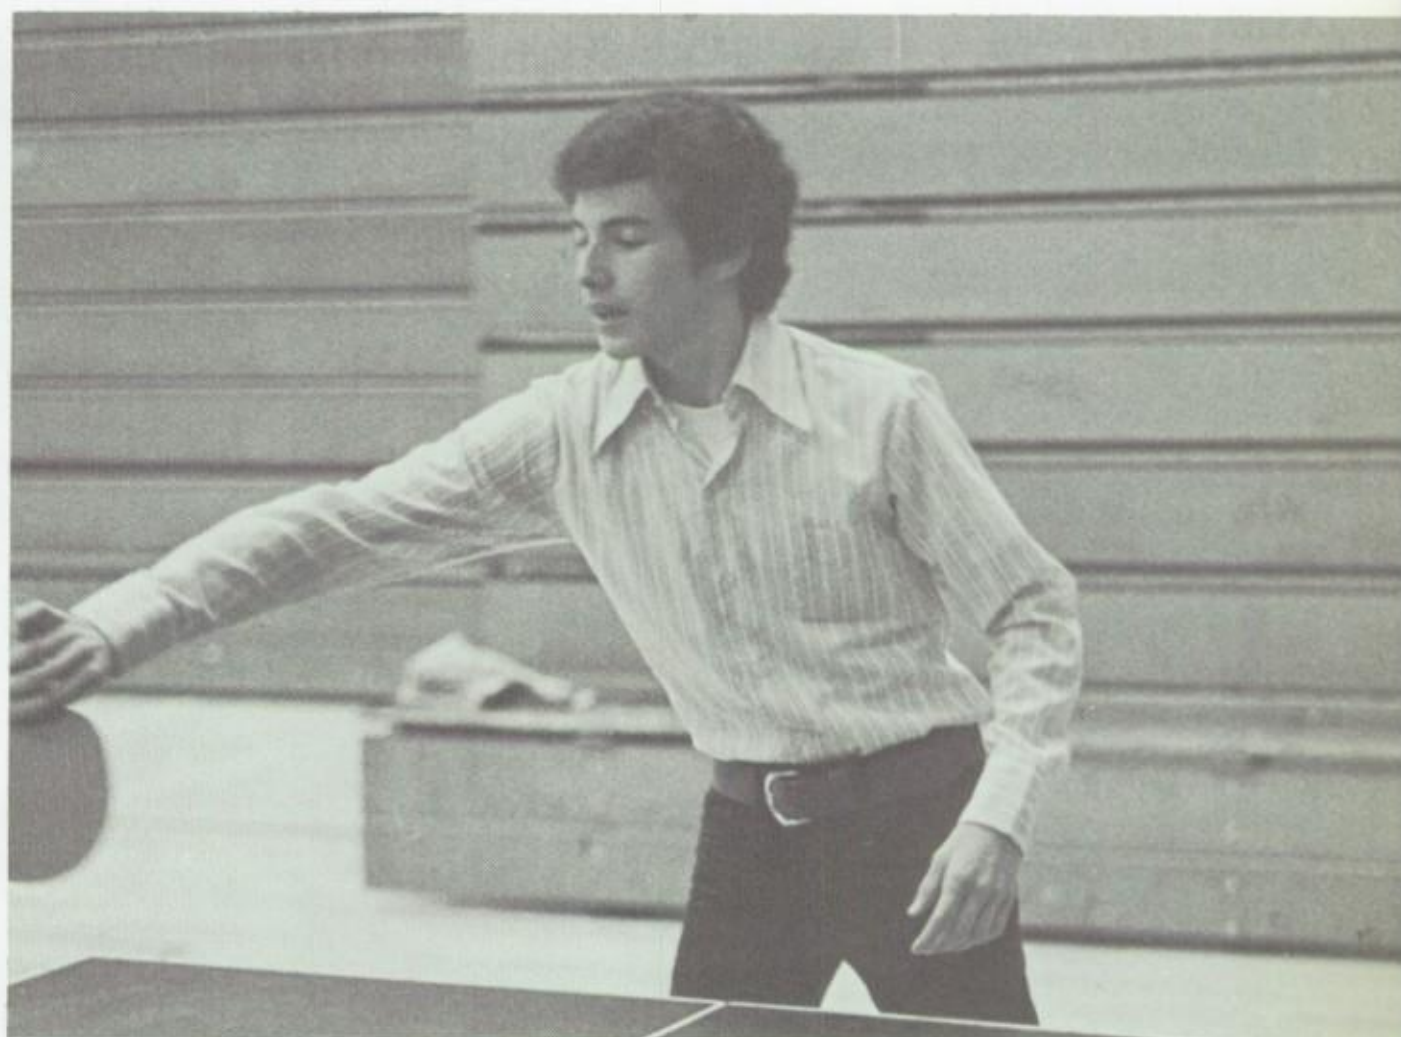

Summertree

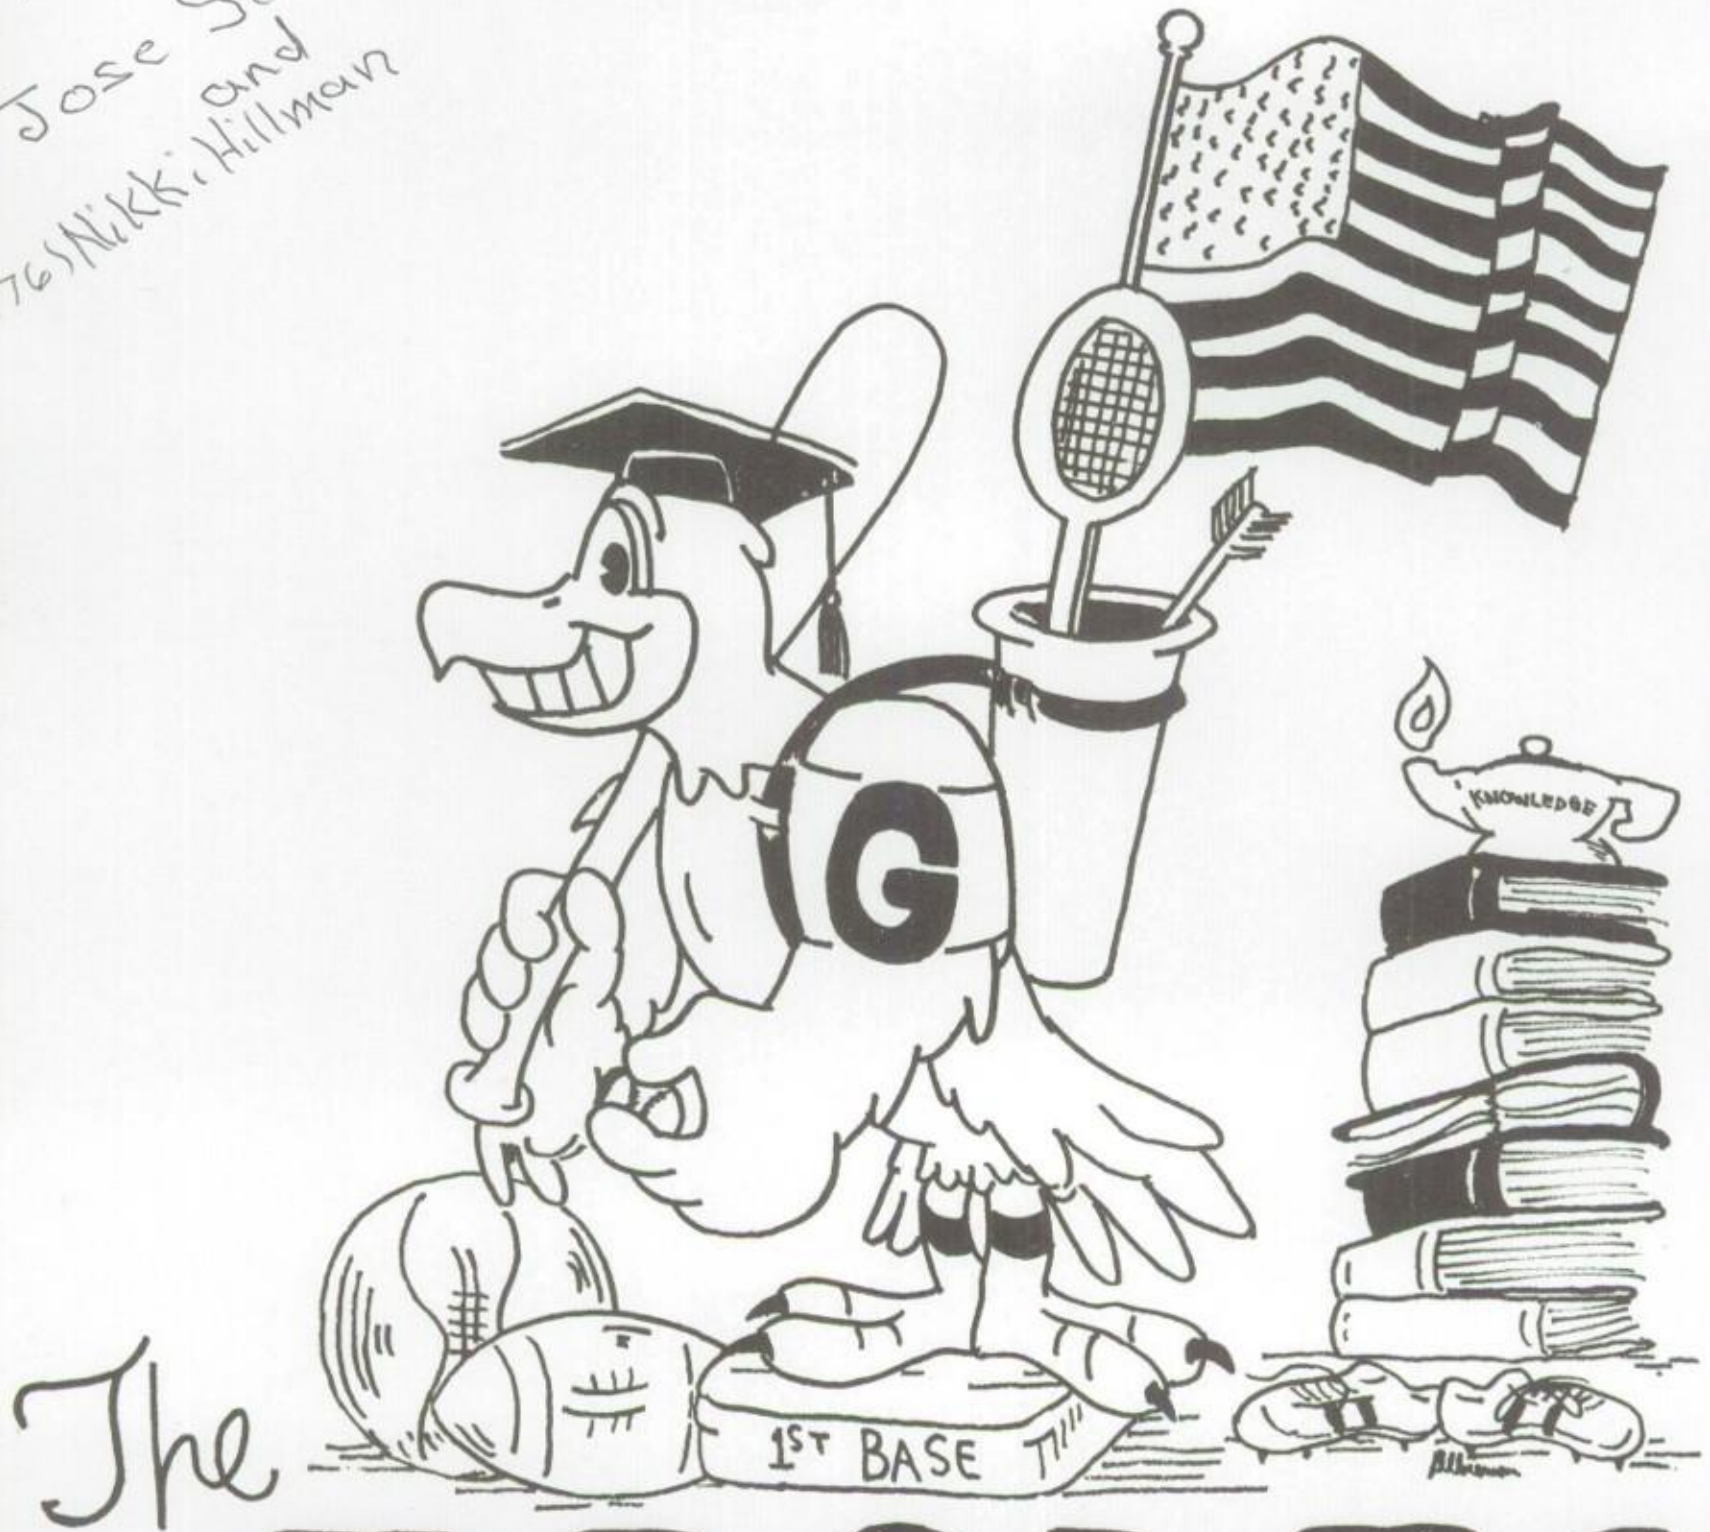

Sports Night

On certain nights as the sun sets in the west and the stars start twinkling a peculiar phenomenon takes place in the John Glenn Gym. Up come the lights, out come the nets, rackets, and balls. In troop the students, then best of all, the teachers arrive dressed in scuzzies. (TEACHERS?) Everybody gets in the spirit and has a good old time which is the whole idea behind a Sports Night.

To a nice

Reflections

Today we all are unique and individualistic. There is no general definition for the people of today. We do not dress alike, talk alike, play or study alike. Our interests are widening. Life is becoming more meaningful. Our concerns are real. We are not just one but a group, and each and everyone needs help. We are the people who make up today.

Oh, well I really don't know what to write (except your really weird (not really) your a pretty good kid and I really hope you stay that way. Are you really stuck on J. or are you just messing around (probably)

It was really nice knowing I hope I don't get to know you any better because I don't think I'll be able to trust you not really to tell you the truth I'm really glad I get to know you because, who else can I able to write notes back and forth throughout the German on Sunday and whatse tells me all about her love life, no one other than you truly, Robin. Oh well I better end this now because it's getting pretty long. So I'll end it like that best wishes in what ever may lie ahead of you and may you be best in what ever you do.

The Sophomores, with one year of High School behind them, are beginning to settle down to the irregular routine of John Glenn. They are halfway up the ladder. If you ask if they care they might reply, "Why do you ask?"

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Stepping into High School and ready to handle the world, the Freshmen, as might be expected, are feared by almost all teachers. It has been said that some teachers might consider them to be intelligent human beings! Yes, this class of '76' is rather unique.

Getting kicked off campus by the janitors because it's 11:30 P.M. Clapping your hand over your big mouth just before you blurt out the theme of the book to your P.E. class. Giving thanks for the day Monica's mother learned to bake. Jami's comment, "I don't like your layout", forgetting she'd OK'd it the day before. Anna begging everyone to sit down so she can take roll. Danelle holding out her pudgy hands and saying, "gimme, gimme, gimme!" Sue DeFord making goo-goo eyes at the photographer's assistant. Having our dear green booger for a classmate. Carrie scrounging around in the garbage can in search of her new layouts. D.J. eating cauliflower and guacamole sixth period. Bill frantically trying to get the lunches and the change to come out even. Jeri and Sheri demonstrating sisterly love. D.J.'s golden words, "We've got problems." Mr. Fullerton's golden words, "Don't worry about it!" Sandy finding out Friday her division page is due Monday. Don frantically searching for club advisors who don't exist. Monica and Marla running around in their leotards. Looking forward to looking back on it all.

A black and white photograph of a group of 18 students posing outdoors in two rows. The back row consists of 10 students standing, and the front row consists of 8 students kneeling or sitting on the grass. They are in front of a building with vertical wooden slats and some trees. The students are dressed in casual attire typical of the late 1960s or early 1970s, including sweaters, button-down shirts, and jeans. The group is diverse in appearance, with various hairstyles and clothing styles. The setting appears to be a schoolyard or a similar outdoor area.

Varsity Football

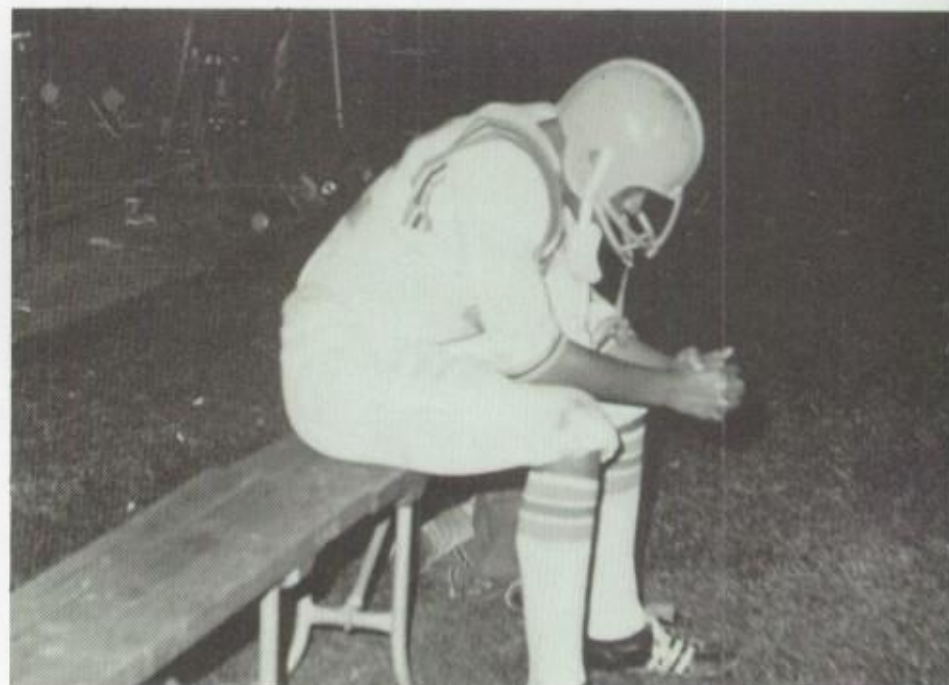

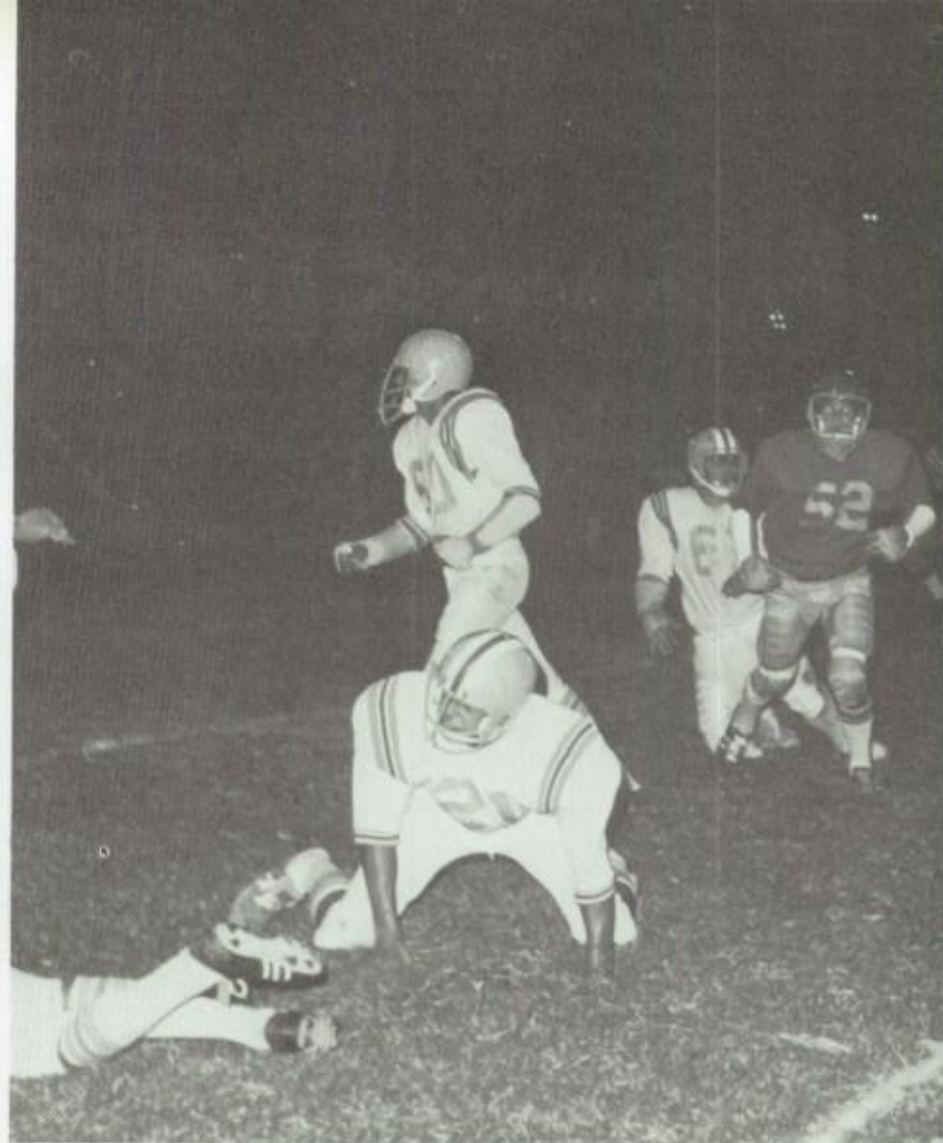

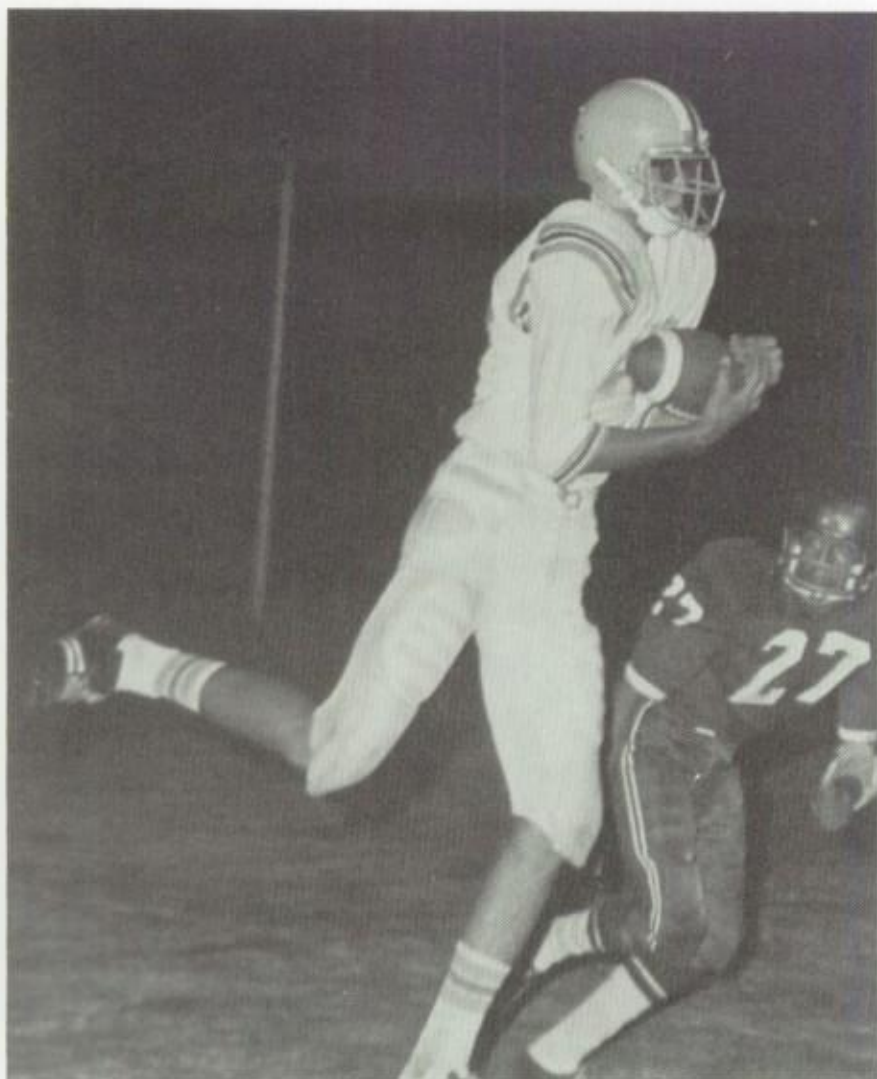

Sometimes you win and sometimes you lose. Eh, so we lost a little bit more than usual. As the old saying goes "Nobody's perfect"! The season started out with our annually scheduled loss to Excelsior. The Drill Team and Cheer Leaders were superb. The skits and pep rallies they sponsored brightened our days. The football games the TEAM toyed with darkened the nights even blacker than they were supposed to be. All in all it was a good year for losing.

Cross Country

In spite of a poor season Javier Porras portrayed his expert running throughout the season. If we had the participation of last years runners our season would have been much improved.

Gymnastics

The John Glenn Gymnastics Team has improved throughout this year and excelled in almost every event during their competition. This year there were two classes offered for those gymnastically inclined. Even though the classes had to fight for the gym from the boys they pulled through. Now they will be fighting for the Big Mat! Under the careful instruction of Mrs. Quesnell and her T.A.'s she has managed to produce a few young Cathy Rigby's.

Girls Tennis

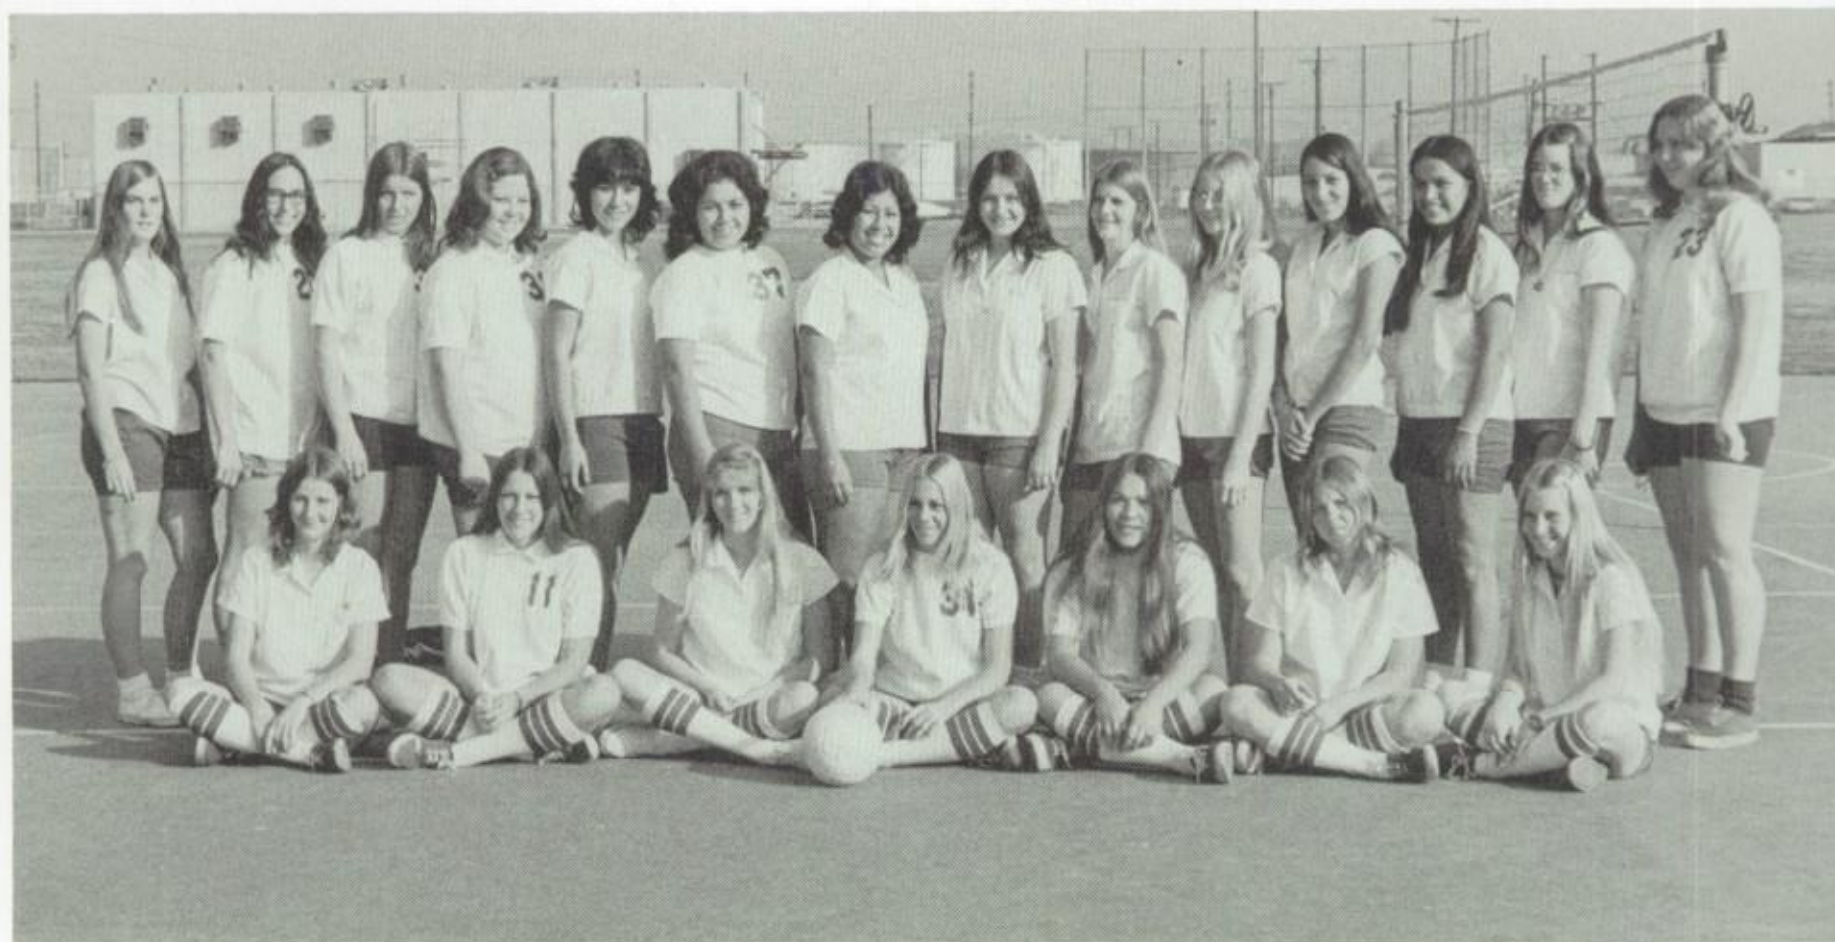

Karen Desormeaux (1), Elizabeth Mendizabal (2), Sandy Saluiti (3), Sandy Rutherford (4), Caryl Wilson (5), Sharon Pettit (6), Kathy Christensen (7), Debbie Christie (8), Sylvia Hernandez (9), Carol Parsons (10), Joyce Freedman (11), Karen Allred (12).

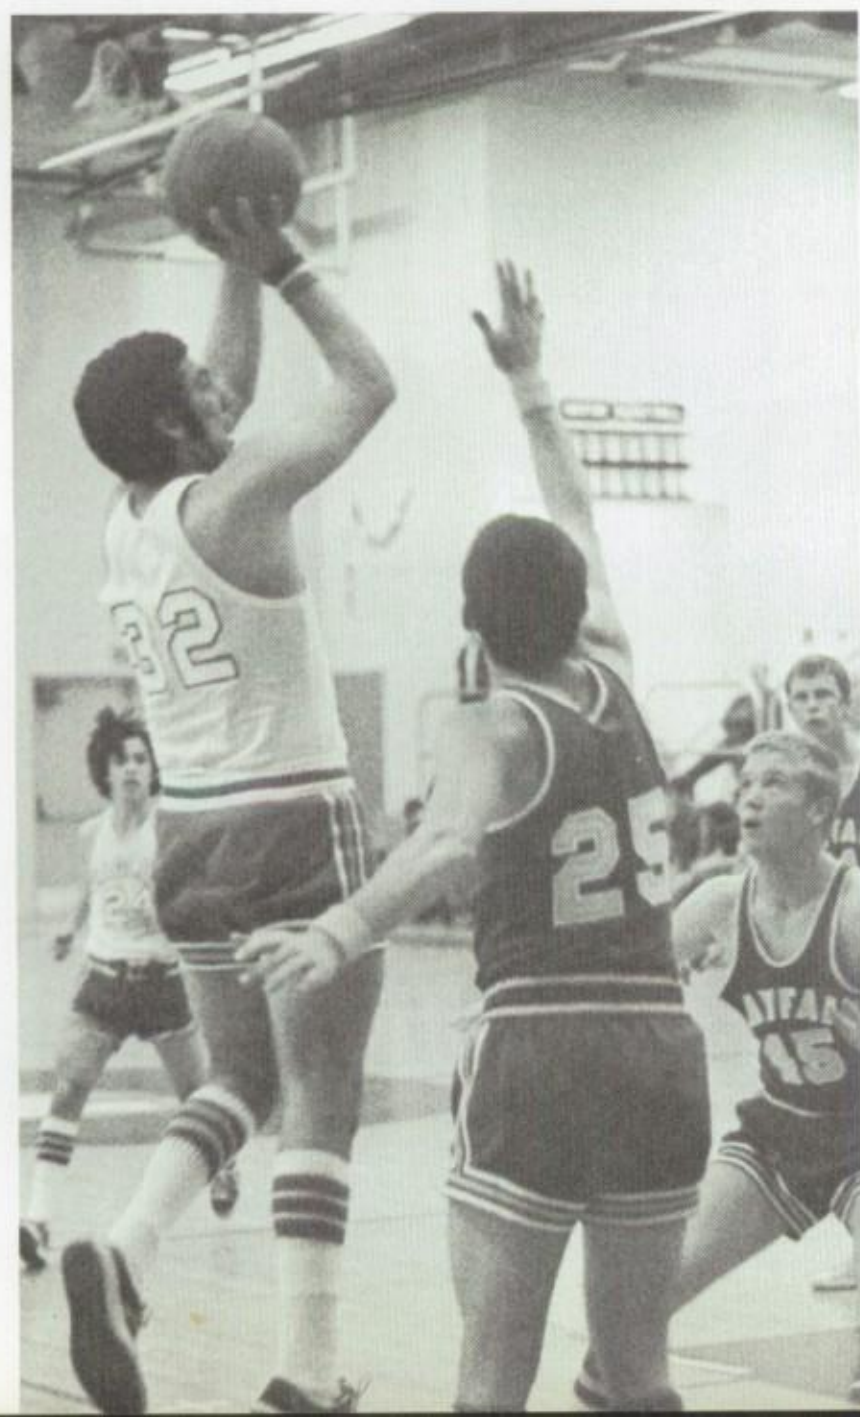

GAA

Today in the rapid race of competition between men and women G.A.A. is opening doors toward athletic equality. These few energetic young ladies have and are continuing to raise the caliber of the female athlete. G.A.A. is now engaging in competition with other schools in various sports. Glenn High will hope for more participation and will continue to improve this program.

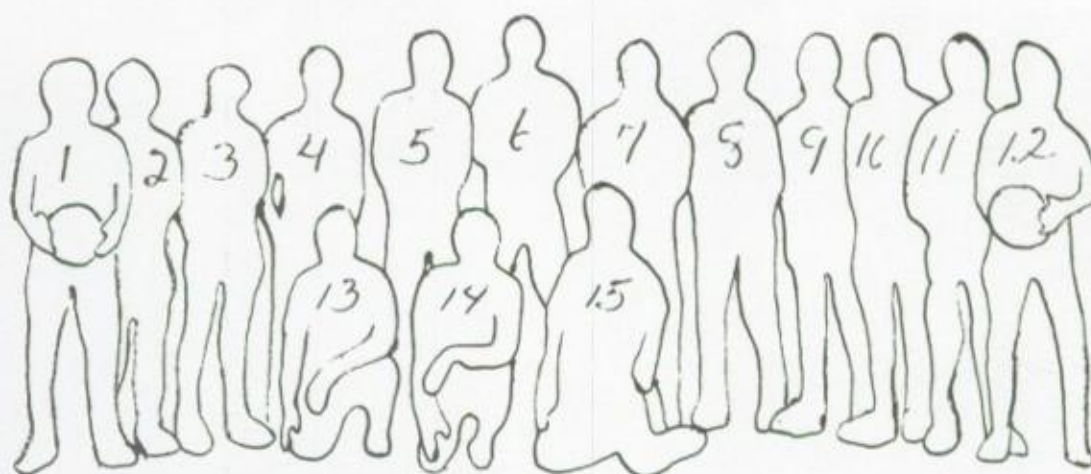

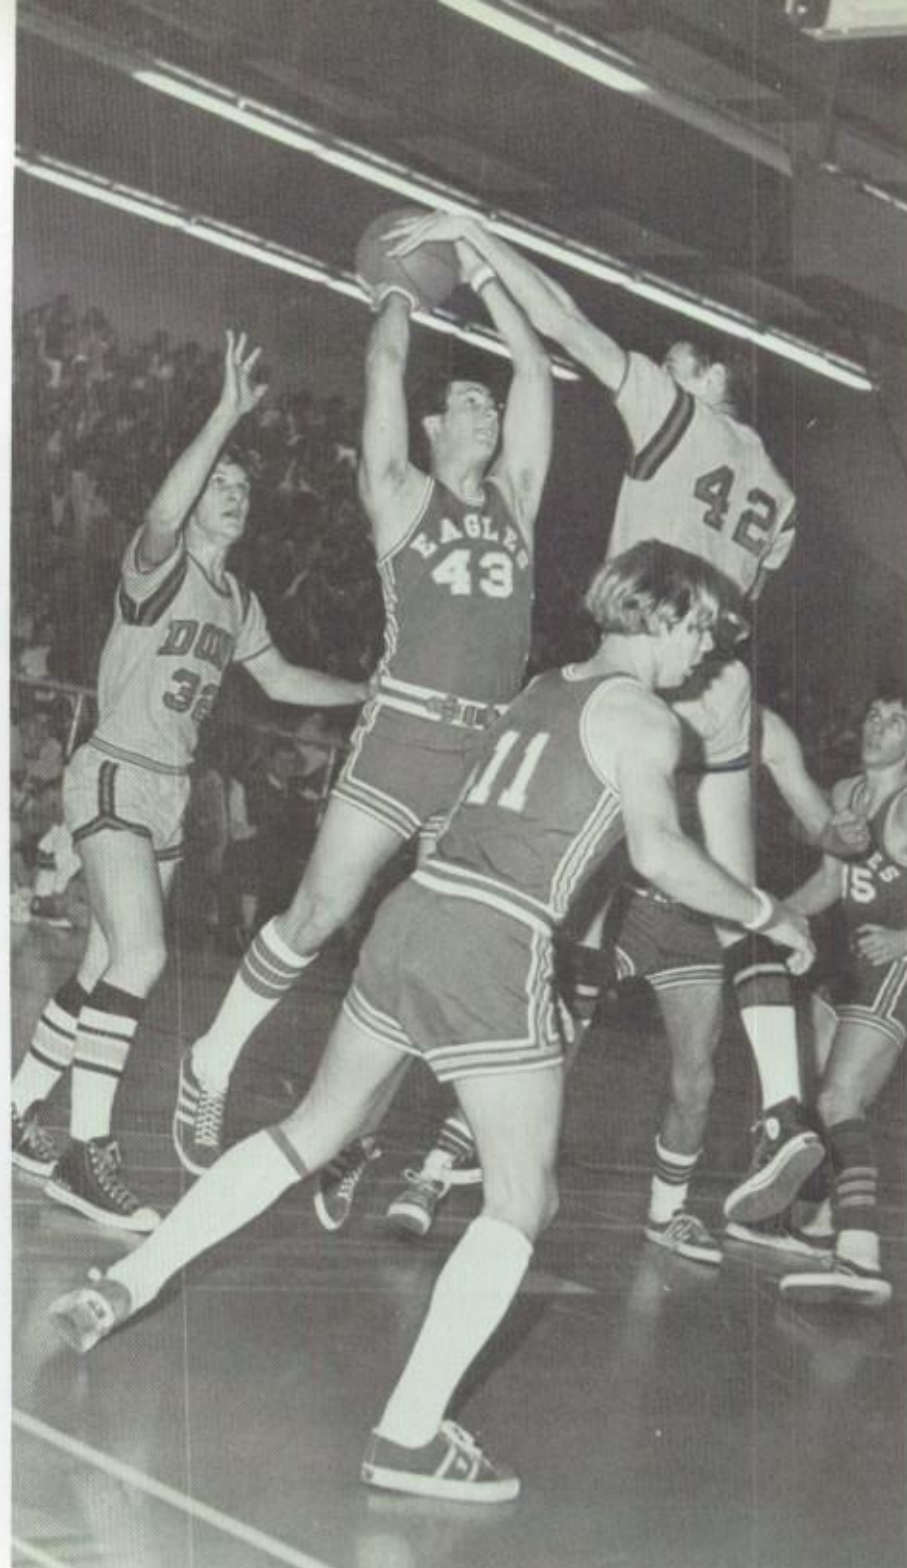

The Eagles started this season with great optimism after an outstanding Summer League. Although we ended with limited triumphs, Glenn lost games by small margins, Mike Van Holland, our 6'5" center, received All League honors. He and 3 other starters will return next year for the possibility of the most successful season in Glenn history.

Varsity was delighted to receive more turn out from the students this year than in the past but, despite spirited crowds at most games, they resolved only two wins. They have pledged a good season next year and hope the support will continue.

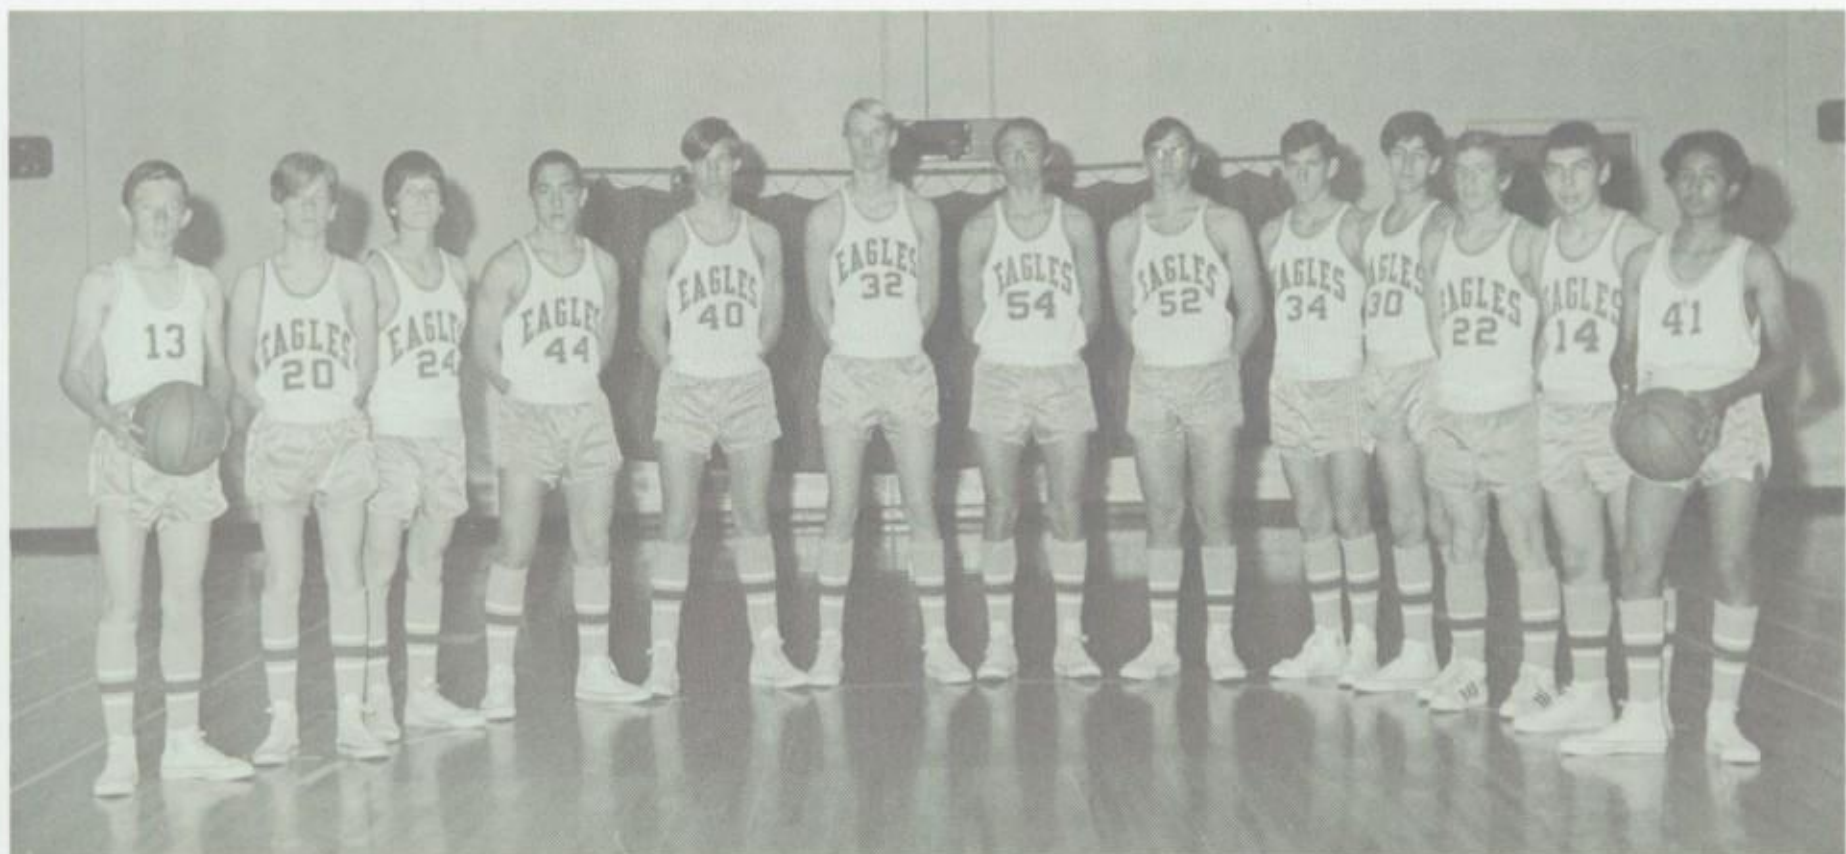

Junior Varsity

This year's JV team suffered from lack of participation. From the first day of training everything went downhill. Although the team gained momentum with the coming of four new additions — Steve Gomez, David Payne, Al Valencia, and Mark Wooten — they still lost all 21 games.

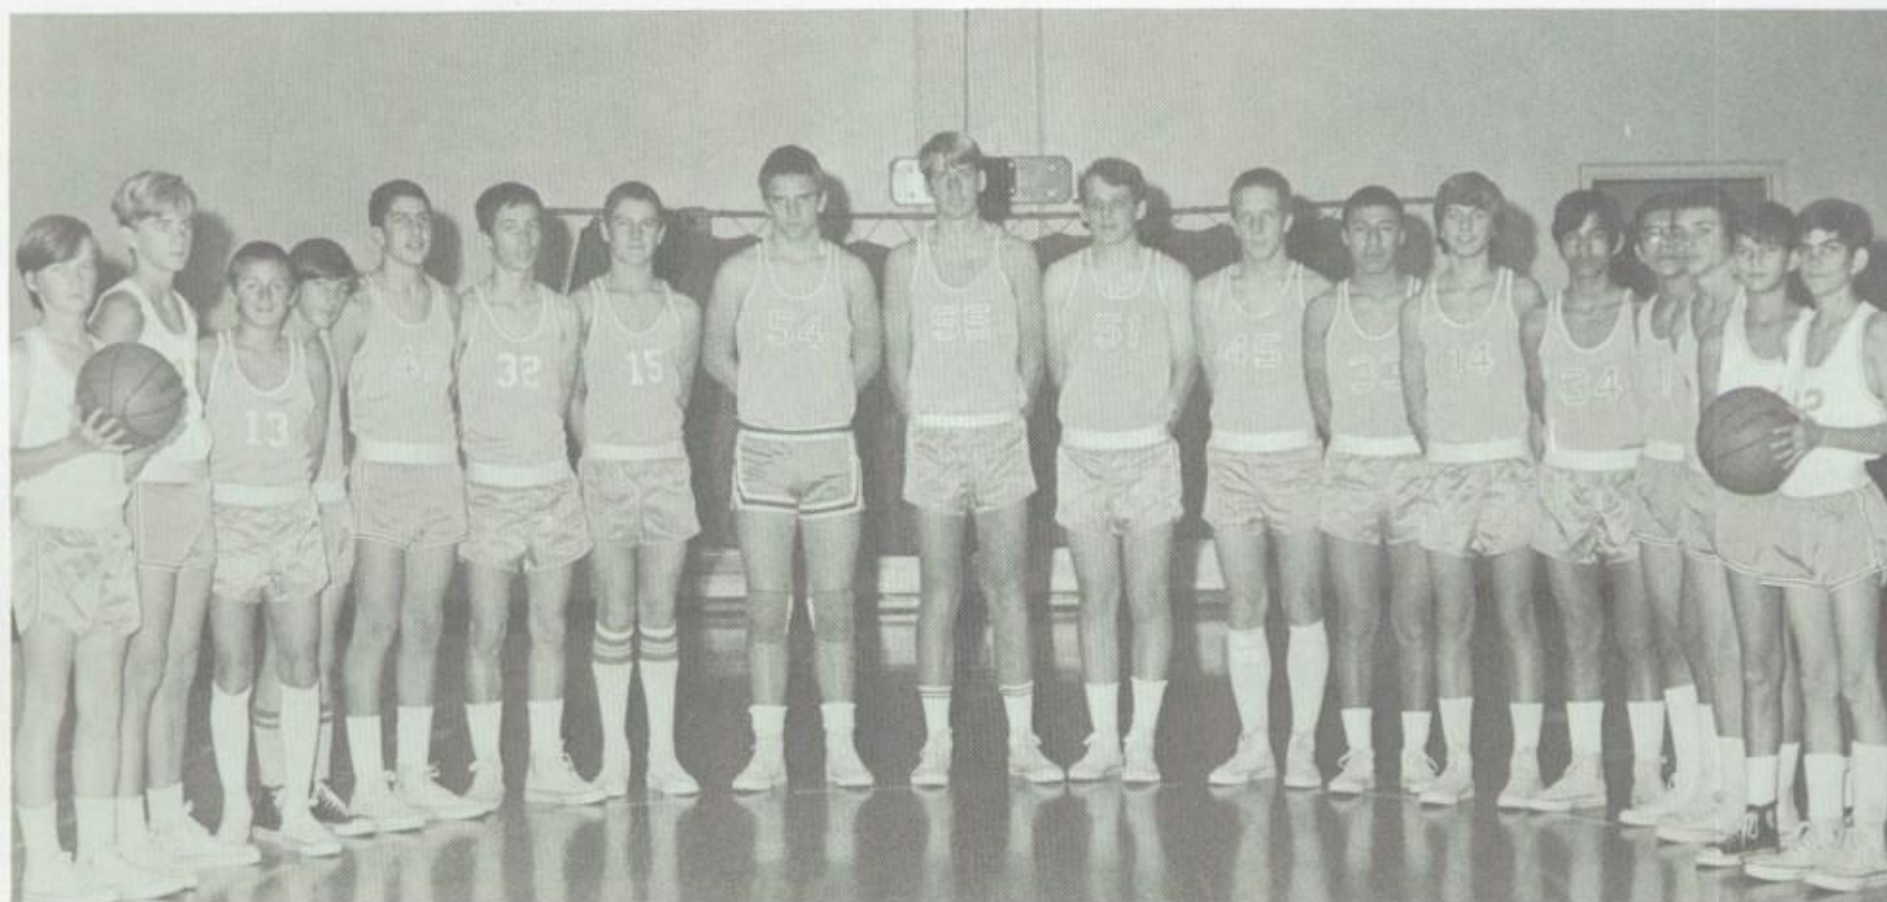

The Sophomores finished the season with Glenn's best record this year. The team gives credit for their success to Coach Vetica. He used training, strategy, and fellowship to move his team up to second place in league. The team's leaders, George Dull and Jim Creek, assisted in keeping up the strength and spirit.

Sophomore Basketball

As the new freshmen came into basketball this year, they were blessed to be taller than most ordinary frosh. We had one of the most victorious teams in our league; some of the credit goes to frequent practicing with the sophomores. Our coaches are looking forward to good years ahead.

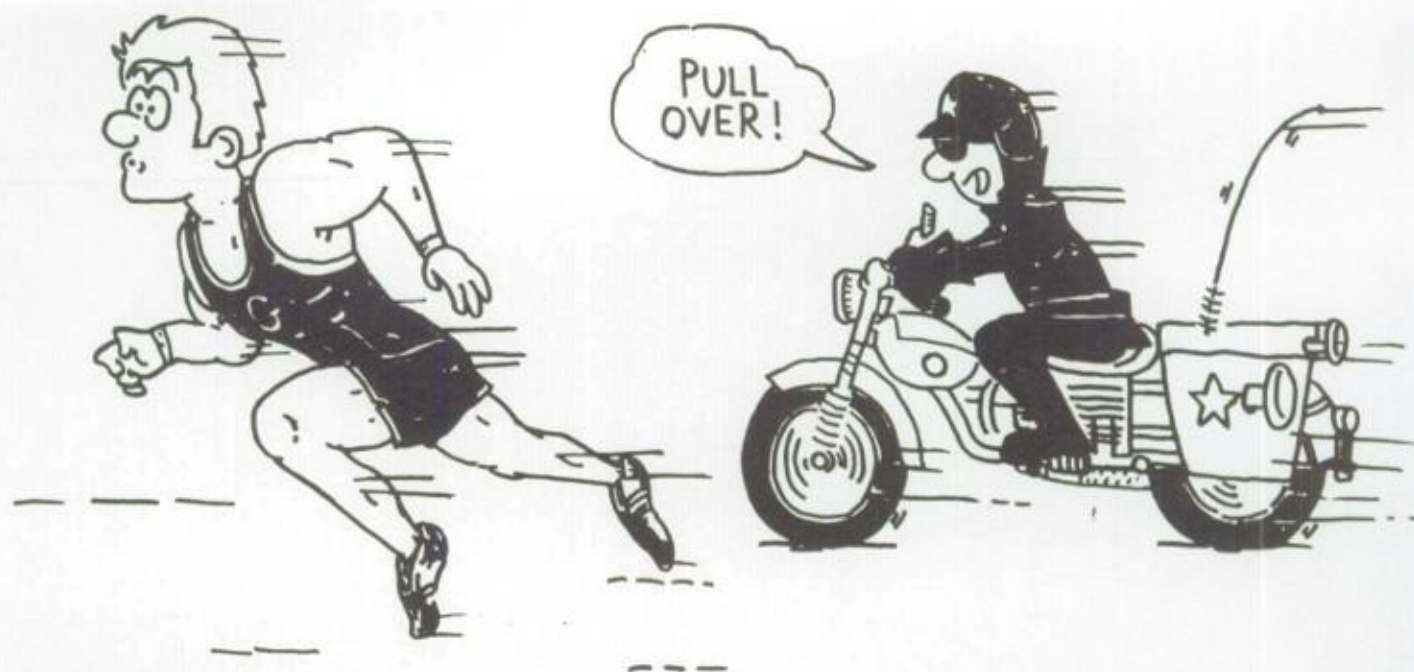

Freshmen Basketball

Baseball

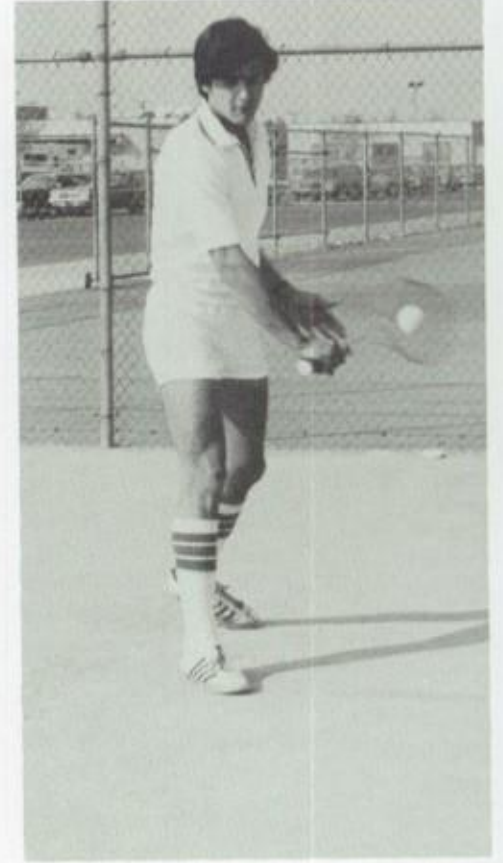

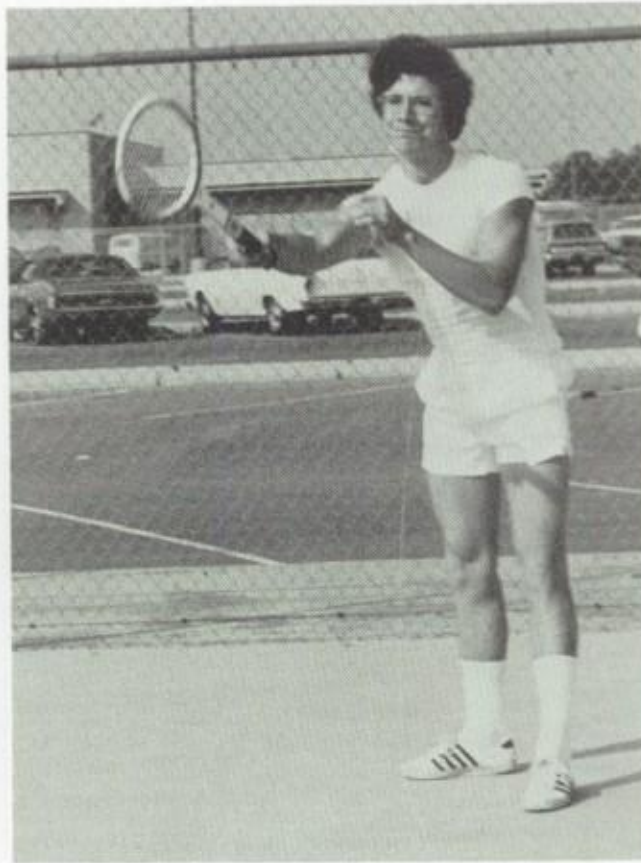

With the inspiration and encouragement of Coach Munroe and his assistants, Glenn had a strong season. Vaulters, puters and sprinters gave us our strengths this year and the possibility of a Championship.

Varsity Tennis

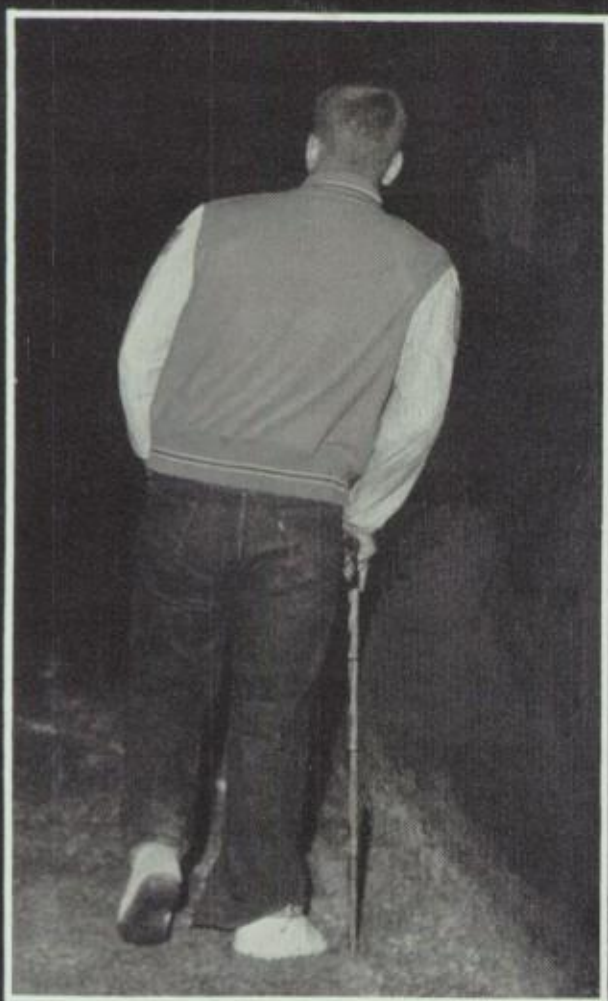

Junior Varsity

After two Suburban League Crowns (rah!) and two unsuccessful CIF bids, our tennis teams are getting ready to try again next year. With returning experience, Glenn is anxious for CIF victory.

In Memoriam

"There is perfection, and our purpose in life is to find it." Although we accept this ideal, it is often easy to forget it, to set it aside, to consider it unimportant. We are only human, and this is why we all need someone, some special teacher, to touch our lives and inspire us to keep on trying, to dream, to strive, to reach that star.

For so many John Glenn students, Mrs. Alyce Mariana and Mrs. Nancy Housden were those special teachers.
